

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I recall and acknowledge with gratitude the assistance given to me in the early stages of this work by the late A. E. Edwards, former Chief Clerk, Lands Department, Federal Capital Commission and the late J. R. Fraser, M.P. for the A.C.T. 1951-1970.

My thanks go to His Honour Mr. Justice Hardie of the Supreme Court of New South Wales for his encouragement, Professor L. F. Crisp of the A.N.U. for his interest and to Professor G. Sawyer of the A.N.U. for some stimulating scepticism.

I thank Mrs. H. Hillery, Mrs. B. Carton, Miss C. Nicholas and others for typing my manuscripts and also those officers of the National Library of Australia who assisted me.

Stephen Brown I thank for his very helpful comments and suggestions and for proof reading. My thanks are due to G. C. Daley, a long term resident of Canberra, for his encouragement and valuable advice.

I owe a special debt of gratitude to Rolland O'Regan, a City Councillor from Wellington (N.Z.) and a notable authority on municipal and lands administration, for his faith in my work, his active support and his constructive criticism of all my drafts.

Without the understanding of my wife Mary and my children Frank, Tom and Mary this book might never have been completed. They suffered the deprivation of much of my "spare time" over the last couple of years.

Needless to say the persons mentioned above hold no responsibility for the views expressed in this work. All expressions of opinion in this book are mine. They do not represent, nor do they necessarily accord with, official opinion, more particularly that of any Government or Department especially the Commonwealth Department of which I happen to be a serving member.

FRANK BRENNAN,
Canberra,
