

INDEX

A

- Absolutism, in law, 494; of classic doctrines, 504, 506; accepted by George, 508
- Acquisitiveness, 549-51
- Alabama, single tax colony in, 442 n., 443-44
- Alberta, land value taxation in, 400-402
- Andorra, single tax colony in, 442 n.
- Anti-Poverty Society, foundation of, 69-70; George's doctrines a new gospel to, 338-39; Father McGlynn in, 351-54, 356, 359; and Henry George, 352 and n., 354, 359
- Arden (Del.), single tax colony, 444
- Argentina, land value taxation in, 456-57
- Argyll, Duke of, denounces George, 65
- "As if," 502, 505, 506, 507
- Associated Press, George's encounter with, 38-39
- Association, in equality the law of progress, 530-33
- Australasia, George's lecture trip to, 70-71; land value taxation in, 70-71, 385-98; George's influence in, 388 and n., 392, 395
- Australia, its enthusiastic reception of George, 70-71, 392; land value taxation in, 388, 389, 390-94, 396

B

- Baker, Newton D., a disciple of George, 462, 464
- Bebel, F. A., on common vs. private property in land, 253 n.

- Beer, M., on George's influence in Great Britain, 235
- Biology, recognized by contemporary philosophy, 1. See also Eugenics
- Blackstone, Sir William, revolt against his natural law, 494
- Bodenreformer (German single taxers), 450-51
- Böhm-Bawerk, E. von, his distinctions between land and capital, 101
- Bray, Charles, and Henry George, 171 n.
- Brazil, land value taxation in, 457
- British Columbia, land value taxation in, 399-400
- Brown, Harry/Gunnison, single taxer, 467
- Bryan, W. J., on Henry George, 464-65
- Burgess, Edwin, forerunner of George, 192-93
- Butler, Nicholas M., on George's influence, 470-71, 474
- Bye, Raymond T., on land value taxation, 469

C

- California, effect of environment on George, 215-25, 234; land speculation in, 220-21; single tax defeated in, 433; experiments in land value taxation, 439
- Canada, land value taxation in, 398-406; George's influence in, 405-406
- Canberra. See Yass-Canberra
- Capital, in wages fund theory, 83, 85; definition of, 87-109; a factor

- in production, 110, 117, 121; a full return to, with rent socialized, 132; essential character of, 141; fused with land by socialists, 246, 254-58; distinguished from land by George, 258-61; and the wage system, 277, 279, 280; benefit to, from land value taxation, 520
- Capitalism, Thomas's socialist philosophy restricted to age of, 267-70
- Carlyle, Thomas, on poverty, 9 n.
- Carver, Thomas N., on inheritance tax vs. land value tax, 426; on land value taxation, 468
- Catholic Church, and George, 349, 358, 359 and n., 360-71, 372
- Charity, George's view of, 336
- Charmont, and changing philosophy of law, 500, 501
- China, George's influence in, 461-62
- Chinese immigration, George demands restriction of, 40-41; John Stuart Mill on, 201 n.
- Christianity, George's type of, 336-43; essence of primitive, 372
- Church, George and the Christian, 338
- Churchill, Winston, turns his back on land value taxation and free trade, 415
- Civilization, a slow upward climb divided into cycles, 524-25; prospects of decline of present, 525-28
- Class struggle, Marx on origin of, 253
- Collectivism, democratic, of Norman Thomas, 266-69, 271; soundness of, 282-83
- Colonies, single tax, 428, 442-45
- Colorado, land value taxation defeated in, 430, 439
- Commons, John R., supports land value taxation, 439-41, 469
- Communism, Spencer refutes fallacies of, 292; attributed to Spencer and George, 294
- Compensation vs. confiscation, in rent socialization, 144-49; favored by James Mill and John Stuart Mill, 205-206; required, according to Spencer, 306, 315-16
- Competition, George's doctrines of, 273-81
- Condition of Labor, The*, 360, 363-71
- Confiscation, of rent, proposed, 130-33; vs. compensation, 144-49
- Conflict, 529-30, 531, 533
- Conservative party, resists enactment of land value taxation, 410, 414, 415, 419-20
- Corrigan, Archbishop, and Father McGlynn, 347-48, 353, 363
- Corruption, in government, 527
- Crime, on the uptrend, 11
- Croce, Benedetto, his division of the Practical, 7 n.
- Culture, development of, a function of rent, 536
- Cycle, business, explanation of, 125 n.

D

- Darrow, Clarence, once a disciple of George, 462, 463-64
- Davenport, Herbert J., and the distinction between land and capital, 100-105; on public retention of ground rent, 107 n.; opposes George's demand for confiscation of past increment, 144-45, 147; on George's vision, 156-57; on land value taxation, 469-70; his work, 481, 486
- Delaware, single tax campaign in, 429-30; single tax colony in, 444
- Demand, as a determinant of value, 96, 107-109, 112; brings staggering urban land values, 123
- Denmark, land value taxation in, 446-49
- Depression, business, caused by land speculation, 125 n.
- Description, dominance of, in economics, 479, 480, 482, 483, 486, 487, 488, 513
- Desirable, what is, 90-92

- Determinism, economic, 262-63, 265, 283-84
- Dewey, John, on importance of Henry George, 4 and n.; on moral vs. economic progress, 11; on George's emphasis on ideal factors, 122; on growth of individuality, 516-17, 518; on greatness of George, 562
- Diminishing return, law of, 114-15, 118-19
- Distribution, disparity in, 11, 14-17; George's first public expression on, 40; George's inquiry into laws of, 110-17; his coördination of laws of, 117-19, 120-21; why solutions of economic problems can be found only in dimension of, 124; inequality in, due to inequality in land ownership, 129, 521, 536; the realm of George's economic solution, 518-23; despotism from unequal, 527
- Dove, Patrick E., forerunner of George, 165-71
- Drudgery, a destroyer of industry and of skill, 10 n.
- Duguit, Pierre, and changing philosophy of law, 500, 501
- E
- Economics, professional philosophy and, 1-3; fusion with ethics, 4, 5-7, 12-14, 18; two annoying attitudes of modern, 136-39; directing power of moral concepts essential to, 479-515; George's challenge to, 565-66
- Economists, George's relation to the great British, 200-214; academic, and George, 467-70, 472-74, 565 n.
- Eden (Germany), single tax colony, 442 n.
- Edmonton (Alta.), municipal single tax in, 401, 402
- Education, George on, 23 n.
- Enclaves of economic rent, 442-45
- Ends, as functions of means, 6, 12, 14, 18
- England, socialism in, and George, 230-40; the socialists and land reform in, 245, 246-48
- Environment, vs. heredity, 536-42
- Episcopal Church, in George's early training, 21-22, 24
- Equality, "as if" approach to, 502; increasing emptiness of legal, 526; second essential of progress, 532
- Ethics, its hierarchy of values conditioned by its social background, 1-18; its place in George's work, 139-40, 149; Spencer's, 296-307 passim, 309; directing power of concepts in, essential to economics, 479-515; no divorce from economics possible, 545-51; George's challenge to, 565-68
- Eugenics, and social reform, 538-41
- Evil, problem of, 2
- Evolutionism, Spencer's, criticized by George, 322-33
- Exchange, value in, 89-91
- F
- Fabian Society, its formation stimulated by George, 231, 238-39; interested in land problem, 247
- Facts, emphasis on, in economics, 479, 481-82, 488, 490, 515
- Fairhope (Ala.), single tax colony, 442 n., 443-44
- Faith, George's religious, 336-43
- Farmers, opposition by, to land value taxation, 433, 446; Danish, favor land value taxation, 446, 447, 449
- Fatalism, hopeful, George questions theory of, 524
- Fels, Joseph, finances Oregon single tax campaign, 430-31; stimulates single tax agitation in Denmark, 447-48
- Fels Fund Commission, 462 n.
- Fictions, distinguished, 505; how to be taken, 507

- Filangieri, Gaetano, forerunner of George, 187-88
- Fillebrown, C. B., on religious appeal of George's work, 366; on lack of progress in land value taxation, 427
- Fisher, Irving, on land value taxation, 467-68
- Fort Churchill (Man.), land policy in, 403
- Fourier, François M. C., influence of, 442
- France, single tax colony in, 442 n.
- Frankfurt-am-Main, land value taxation in, 453-54
- Free Acres (N. J.), single tax colony, 444
- Free trade, George on meaning of, 66; incomplete without a change in the distributive process, 125; in Denmark, 447
- Function, an unsatisfactory ground for differentiating land from capital, 105-106
- G
- Garland, Hamlin, a disciple of George, 462, 464 and n.
- Garrison, William Lloyd, the younger, his devotion to George, 465 and n.
- George, Henry: his contribution to social ethics, 3-18; early training of, 19-25; goes to sea, 25-27; learns printing trade in Philadelphia, 27-28; catches gold fever, 29-30; a printer in San Francisco, 30-34; his early married life, 34-37; becomes a reporter and editor, 37-39; his first writings on industrial and economic subjects, 39-44; founds and edits San Francisco Daily Evening Post, 44-46; begins his career as a public speaker, 46-49; writes Progress and Poverty, 49-53; founds The State, 54; returns to the East, 54-55; as a lecturer, 57; and the Irish land movement, 57-58; always in debt, 58-59; his bearing on the platform, 59-60; his speaking campaign in Ireland, 60-63; makes speaking trips in U. S. A., and writes Social Problems, 63; lectures in Great Britain for Land Reform Union, 64-65; on meaning of free trade, 66; labor candidate for mayor of New York, 66-69; founds a reform weekly in New York, 69; in New York State politics, 70; speaking tours around the world, 70-72; stricken with aphasia, 72; writes The Science of Political Economy, 72-73, 74; open letter to Pope Leo XIII, 73; his passage at arms with Spencer, 73-74; his second candidacy for New York mayoralty and his death, 74-78; accepts classical approach to political economy, 79-82; attacks wages fund theory and Malthusianism, 82-87; his definition of terms, 87-109; his inquiry into and coordination of laws of distribution, 110-19, 120-21; his solution of the problem of rent, 121-33; his ethical justification of socializing economic rent, 133-49, 150-51; his canons of taxation, 149-61; forerunners of, 162-215; his background, 215-26; his proposal confused with socialism, 227-30; his connection with British socialism, 230-40; his connection with American socialism, 240-45; land views of, shared by socialists, 245-53; contrast between socialists and, 254-61; fundamental barrier between socialists and, 261-66; diverging economic philosophies of history of socialists and, 266-70; his individualism, 271-73; his doctrine of free competition, 273-81; his attack on Spencer, 285-86, 306; his personal charges against Spencer, 308-15; attacks Spencer's syn-

- thetic philosophy, 322-35; and institutionalized religion, 336-43, 358-60, 368; and the McGlynn case, 349, 352 and n., 358-60; his friendship with Father McGlynn, 345, 354, 356; his open letter to Pope Leo XIII, 360-71; his argument for existence of God, 372-75; his belief in immortality, 375-78; his challenge to the religious institution, 378-80; his place in the history of land value taxation, 381-85; his influence in Australasia, 388 and n., 392, 395; his influence in Canada, 405-406; his influence in Great Britain, 406-408, 409, 416, 423-24; his influence in U. S. A., 424-46; his influence in Denmark, 446-47, 449; his influence in Germany, 450, 451, 452 and n., 456; his influence in South America, 457; his influence on later thinkers, 458-75; his interpretation of natural rights, 508-12; his concern with poverty, 516-18; his economic solution located in distribution, 518-23; his view of law of human progress, 523-36; ethical effects of his economic solution, 542-62; philosophy and, 563-65; his challenge to economics and ethics, 565-68
- Germany, land value taxation in, 449-56
- Gide, Charles, on George and the Physiocrats, 173, 176 n.
- Gilpin's Point (Md.), single tax colony, 444
- God, George's faith in, 337; George's argument for the existence of, 372-75
- Gorgas, William C., a single taxer, 471-72
- Government, corruption in, 527
- Graham, Frank D., on scientific taxation, 468
- Great Britain, its reception of Progress and Poverty, 55-56, 57; George's reception in, 61-62, 63, 64-65; George lectures in, 70; socialism in, and George, 230-40; land value taxation in, 406-24
- Greed, cause and cure of, 549-51
- Grey, Sir George, his praise of Progress and Poverty, 53; host to George, 71; land value taxation introduced in New Zealand by, 386-87
- Ground rent, measure of social progress, 150; effect of State collection of annual, 158, 161

H

- Haig, Robert M., his report on Canadian land value taxation, 405, 437, 438 n.
- Halidon (Me.), single tax colony, 444
- Hancock, Winfield Scott, George stumps for, 55 n.
- Heredity, vs. environment, 536-42
- History, George's economic philosophy of, 269-70
- Hobson, J. A., on George's influence in England, 64 n., 235
- Hocking, William E., and changing philosophy of law, 494, 496; on rights, 503, 504 n.
- Home rule. See Local option
- House of Lords, its resistance to land value tax legislation, 408-11, 417, 419
- Houston (Tex.), land value taxation in, 434-35
- Howe, Frederic C., a persistent advocate of George's principles, 462
- Hubbard, Elbert, on George's mental growth, 23
- Huxley, Thomas H., opposes views of both Spencer and George, 299 and n.; Spencer's answer to, 301-302
- Hyndman, H. M., discovers a forerunner of George, 134; his attitude toward George, 236-37; debates with George, 239, 240 n.

I

Ideals, contrasted with wants, 6-7, 8, 10 n., 12-14; vs. realities, 558-61
 Idleness, our taxation system encourages, 518
 Immortality, George's belief in, 337, 375-78
 Incidence, shifting of tax, 154
 Income, earned vs. unearned, 133, 148-49
 Individual, in changing philosophy of law, 497, 499-500, 501; natural rights and the, 502-504; land value taxation and, 522; society's functional control of, 537, 542
 Individualism, George's, 271-73, 509; Spencer's, 286-87, 314; Roscoe Pound on, 499
 Individuality, not to be cultivated in isolation, 516-17
 Industrialism, socialist emphasis on, 267-70
 Industry, destroyed by drudgery, 10 n.
 Inequality, growth of, 531, 532, 533, 535-36
 Inheritance tax, vs. land value tax, 426
 Insecurity, economic, 8; most marked feature of present civilization, 518; removable by socializing rent, 522; social unhealth radiated by, 533; and George's law of human progress, 535; effects of abolishing, 543, 552; its effects on man, 549-50
 Institutionalism, and Christianity, 336-43
 Instrumentalism, social, and Henry George, 3, 545, 561-62
 Interest, law of, 110, 113-19, 521
 Inventions, cause higher rents, 123-25; a benefit to whole community with land value taxation, 522
 Ireland, George's speaking campaign in, 60-63
Irish Land Question, The, pamphlet by George, 57, 58

Irish World, brings George into connection with Irish land movement, 57-58

J

James, William, on God, 18
 Jefferson, Thomas, forerunner of George, 191-92
 Jevons, William S., his marginal utility approach to value, 92
 Johnson, Lewis J., a single taxer, 472
 Johnson, Tom L., his circulation of Protection or Free Trade, 66 n.; his devotion to George, 464 n., 465 n.

K

Kiao-chau, land value taxation in, 452-53
 Kōge resolution, 447

L

Labor, George's popularity with, 56, 57 n., 63, 66-68; as a determinant of value, 92-100; its attacks on labor-saving devices short-sighted, 124; a full return to, with rent socialized, 132; and property, 133-144; gain to, from land value taxation, 520, 521
 Labour party (British), pushes through land value taxation, 415-23
 Labuan (near Borneo), single tax colony, 442 n.
 Laissez-faire, 273-81
 Land, California boom in, 42-43; without reproduction value, 96; distinguished from capital, 98-105; rent and the value of, 112-13; demand for, 123, 124; speculation in, a cause of increased rent, 125; ownership of, the great determinant of intellectual and moral conditions, 128-29; common prop-

- erty in, the solution of unequal distribution, 129-30; essential character of, 141; private ownership of, evils involved in, 141-43, 145-46, 160; reform, the socialists and, 245-61; Spencer's earliest thoughts on, 285-92; Spencer recants on, 292-308; "wild," taxation of, 399, 402; heavily taxed in U. S. A., 426-27; fall of civilization correlated with private ownership of, 533
- Land Question, The*, pamphlet by George, 57, 58
- Land speculation, 125, 160; in California, 220-21; in Australasia, 395, 396; in western Canada, 398, 400, 405; in Germany, 451, 453; in Kiao-chau, 452, 453
- Land value taxation, advocated by George, 43-45, 46, 131-33; most just and equal of all, 150-61; George's place in history of, 331-85; in New Zealand, 386-89; in Australasia, 385-98; in South Africa, 394 n.; in Great Britain, 406-24; in U. S. A., 424-46; in Denmark, 446-49; in Germany, 449-56; in Kiao-chau, 452; in South America, 456-57; academic economists on, 467-70; benefits from, in production and distribution, 519-23
- Land values, rise with increasing demand, 108-109; expressions of community coöperation, 123; Thomas Paine on, 188-89; John Stuart Mill on increase in, 203, 207; soaring, in California, 221-22, 223; increase of, in Australasia, 387, 391, 393; increase of, in Canada, 398, 402; appreciation of, in Germany, 451, 453; rise of, in Kiao-chau, 452; in George's philosophy, 534, 535
- Law, revival of natural, 494-95, 501-502; correlation of individualist with social in, 499-500; natural, "as if" approach to, 504
- Leisure, necessary for growth in intelligence, 10 n.
- Leo XIII, Pope, George's open letter to, 73, 360, 363-71; receives and blesses Father McGlynn, 356, 359 n.; his encyclical Rerum Novarum (The Condition of Labor), 360-63
- Liberal party (British), and land reform, 408; enacts land value taxation bill, 410-15
- Liberals, American, and Henry George, 462-67
- Liberty, a presumptive right, 503; increasing emptiness of political, 526; George on, 557
- Libraries, George's interest in public, 50 and n.
- Liéfra (France), a single tax colony, 442 n.
- Life, George on meaning of, 377
- Living, making a, 517; cost of, lower after socialization of rent, 521
- Lloyd George, David, leader in enactment of land value taxation, 410, 411, 415, 416
- Local option, absence of, in Great Britain, 408-409; movements for, in U. S. A., 427, 431, 432, 433, 445 n.; in Colorado, 439
- Locke, John, forerunner of George, 190, 196-200, 204
- Luxury, growth of misery along with, 15

M

- McGlynn, Father Edward, his excommunication, 69; his eloquence, 70; George's doctrines a new gospel to, 338-39; his clash with the hierarchy, 343-58; and George's open letter to the Pope, 358-60, 363, 368, 369, 370-71; his views on the church re social justice, 371-72
- Machine age, Thomas's socialist philosophy restricted to, 267-70
- Machinery, raises rent and lowers

- wages, 124-25; the socialist attitude toward, 268-69; labor and, 279
- Macklin, W. E., on George's influence in Kiao-chau, 452 n.; translates Progress and Poverty into Chinese, 461
- Maine, single tax colony in, 444
- Maintenance, a nonprogressive activity, 529-30, 531, 532, 535, 551
- Maladjustment, economic, and ethical distortion, 17
- Malthusianism, repudiated by George, 82, 86-87, 121-22; and John Stuart Mill, 207
- Manitoba, land value taxation in, 399, 402-403
- Mann, Tom, George's influence on, 236
- Marginal utility, as an approach to value, 92
- Markham, Edwin, an appreciation of George, 465 and n.
- Marx, Karl, his work and personal influence in England, 230-31, 236; Hyndman's comparison of, with Henry George, 237; his criticism of George, 237 and n.; George's criticism of, 238 n.; on fundamental character of land, 249-53; on surplus-value, 256-57; his attitude toward his work, 263
- Maryland, land value taxation in, 429; single tax colony in, 444
- Massachusetts, single tax colonies in, 444
- Materialism, Spencer's, criticized by George, 322-26; dominance of, 549-51
- Means, as functions of ends, 6, 12, 14, 18
- Medicine, its triumphs negated, 11
- Mill, James, anticipates George, 201, 205-206
- Mill, John Stuart, commends George, 41, 201 n.; and wages fund theory, 86, 87; his fallacy in use of "desire," 90-92; his influence over George, 201-207, 208
- Minnesota, land value taxation in, 441 n.
- Misery, growth of, along with luxury, 15, 127, 128
- Missouri, bitter single tax campaign in, 430 n., 433-34
- Moffat, Robert S., on degree of George's originality, 213 n.
- Money, not wealth, 98
- Monopoly, widens gap in economic distribution, 11; land rent the price of, 113; in land, evil effects of, 129; Gerrit Smith on land, 193-95; socialist expressions on land, 246-53; competition and, 274; land, spirit of George's war on, 337, 370; land, in Great Britain, 421, 422; land, and distribution of wealth, 520; effects of land, 556
- Morals, no cleavage between economics and, 5; George's approach to, 12
- Morris, William, on George's influence, 235

N

- National Government (British), threatens repeal of land value tax legislation, 419
- Natural rights, argument by, against private property in land, 141-43; concept of, reinterpreted, 491-502; "as if" approach to, 504-507; George's attitude on, 508-12
- Nature, physical and human aspects of, 143
- New Jersey, a single tax colony in, 444
- New South Wales, land value taxations in, 392-93
- New York, wealth and misery in, 41-42; George returns to, 54-55; George's first candidacy for mayor of, 66-69, 229, 243-45; George's second candidacy for mayor of, 74-78; struggle for land value taxation in, 436-39

- New Zealand, land value taxation in, 386-89, 396
- Non-Partisan League, improvements exempted by, 441 n.
- North Dakota, improvement exemption in, 441 n.
- Norway, single tax activity in, 447 n.
- O
- Obligation, value from, 97, 98, 113, 121
- Ogilvie, William, forerunner of George, 184-87
- Oregon, single tax campaign in, 430-31
- Origin, as a means of differentiating capital from land, 106
- Our Land and Land Policy, National and State*, pamphlet by George, 43-44
- Over-production, spectre of, 124
- Owen, Robert, influence of, 442
- Ownership, separable from use, 159
- P
- Paine, Thomas, forerunner of George, 188-90, 192
- Penn, William, forerunner of George, 188 n.
- Pennsylvania, land value taxation in, 435-36; single tax colony in, 444
- Perplexed Philosopher, A*, a denunciation of Spencer's change of heart, 75; its personal charges against Spencer, 308-15; Spencer's reaction to, 315-22; an attack on Spencer's synthetic philosophy, 322-33
- Philosophy, its neglect of economics and sociology, 1-3, 18; and Henry George, 563-65
- Physics, charmer of contemporary philosophy, 1
- Physiocrats, and Henry George, 170; forerunners of George, 172-80
- Pittsburgh Plan, 435-36, 437
- Plagiarism, charged against George, 170, 171 n.
- Plato, compared with Henry George, 4 n.; concedes existence of wants even in perfect city, 5 n.; on social control of the individual, 542
- Political economy, George accepts classical approach to, 79-82; George's attempt to join theology and, 365-66
- Population, effects of increasing, on rent and land values, 121-23; increasing, increases rent, 126
- Post, Louis F., his devotion to George, 464 n., 465 n.
- Pound, Roscoe, and changing philosophy of law, 494-95, 499-500; on individual, public, social interests, 506-507
- Poverty, problem of, 7-18; defined, 11 n.; George's own experience with, 35-37; its persistence with wealth the major problem to George, 82; its cause, 120; rent the cause of its persistence, 126-28, 129; to extirpate, 129-30; symptom of economic disease, 161; result of man's failure to follow natural law, 166; Paine on origin of, 189; and wages, 276; George's study of, 366 n., 516-18; springs from denial of justice, 556
- Production, value from, 97; factors of, 110, 121; social effect of "improvement of the arts" of, 123-25; taxation and, 153-54; our taxation system penalizes, 518; land value taxation an encouragement to, 519-23
- Productivity, the mother of wages, 84
- Progress, scientific and technical, not matched by social, 11, 14-17; George's view of law of human, 523-36
- Progress and Poverty*, writing and publication of, 49-53, 55 n.; translations of, 55 n.; 447; popular reception of, 53-57, 64; its influence

- in Great Britain, 231-37, passim; completion of, 243; its influence in Germany, 451; Sun Yat Sen collaborates in translating, 461
- Property, common, in land, 129-30,
158, 160; labor theories of, 133-
44, 146, 148; Paine on, 189-90;
Locke on, 197-99; John Stuart
Mill on, 203-205; James Mill on, 205-206; Spencer on common and individual, in land, 307; contemporary economics and concept of,
489; rights to, George and, 509-11
- Protection or Free Trade*, writing and publication of, 63, 66 and n.;
in Norwegian, 447
- Purdy, Lawson, his work for land
value taxation, 436
- Q
- Queensland, land value taxation in,
389, 390-91
- Quick, Herbert, a disciple of George,
462, 464 and n.
- R
- Realism, vs. idealism, 558-61
- Reform, George's devotion to, 313
- Reforms, tendency of thoughtless critics to link widely varying, 227-30
- Religion, institutionalized, and
Henry George, 336-43, 358-60, 368,
371-72
- Rent, law of, 110-14, 117-18, 120-
21; forces that drive it up, 121-
26; the cause of persisting poverty,
126-28; confiscation of, proposed,
130-33; ethical justification of socializing, 133-49; fiscal justification of socializing, 149-61; John Stuart Mill on, 203; problem of, the Webbs on, 247-48; economic,
G. B. Shaw and Philip Snowden on, 248-49, economic, in Australasia, 387, 394, 395, 396; effect of
Canadian land value taxation on,
405; enclaves of economic, 442-
45; socialization of, benefits of,
518, 519-23; in George's philosophy, 534
- Reproducibility, as a determinant of value, 94-96; as a distinction between land and capital, 101-
105, 108
- Resignation, stoic, not enough, 2,
331-34
- Rhode Island, separates land from improvement value, 441 n.
- Ricardo, David, his law of rent interpreted by George, 111-13, 117, 118, 121, 125; provided foundation stone of George's political economy, 208-11; and the expulsion of ethics from economics,
483
- Ritchie, David G., on George's open letter to Pope Leo XIII, 364
- Rivadavia, Bernardino, his agrarian law, 456-57
- Roosevelt, Theodore, runs against
George for mayor of New York,
68; on the burden of taxation,
466 n.
- Russell, Bertrand, attacks land monopoly, 246-47
- S
- Saint Jordi (Andorra), single tax colony, 442 n.
- Salvation, individual, George's view of, 336
- San Francisco Daily Evening Post,
George's editorship of, 44-46
- Saskatchewan, land value taxation in, 400-401
- Scheftel, Yetta, her book The Taxation of Land Values, 156 n.; makes George's work negligible, 382;
scornful of his rôle, 384 n.; recognizes his influence in Australasia, 395, 397; on efficacy of land tax in Australasia, 395-98; on efficacy of land value taxation in Canada,

- 403, 405; on influence of George in Canada, 405-406; on land value taxation in U. S. A., 426, 427 n.
- Schopenhauer, Arthur, admired by George, 330 n.; his influence on George, 373
- Science of Political Economy, The*, writing of, 72-73, 74
- Sciences, the dismal, 1; of fact and of value, 479-80
- Scranton (Pa.), land value taxation in, 435 and n.
- Security, the essential, 158, 159; economic, effects of a state of, 551-57
- Self-interest, enlightened, 274
- Selfishness, not the master motive, 552-55
- Shakerton (Mass.), single tax colony, 444
- Shaw, G. B., Henry George's influence on, 232-34; on George's influence in England, 235; on socialism and the rent problem, 248.
- Shearman, Thomas G., his work for land value taxation, 436
- Single tax: earliest proposal by George, 43; defined, 131-32; effects of, 132-33; attacks on, 147-48; fiscal justification of, 149-61; Dove's suggestion of a, 168-69; the Catholic Church and, 347-50, 352-53, 354-71; land value tax and, 397; municipal, in Edmonton, 401, 402; indissolubly connected with land value taxation in U. S. A., 425-26, 445; campaigns and projects in U. S. A., 423-46; agitations in Denmark, 447; as a panacea, 558 n.
- Skill, destroyed by drudgery, 10 n.
- Skilton, James A., Spencer's letters to, 315-21
- Slavery, involved in private ownership of land, 141-43; wage, 275-80
- Smith, Adam, his distinction between "value in use" and "value in exchange," 89-93; anticipates George, 207-208
- Smith, Gerrit, forerunner of George, 193-95
- Snowden, Philip, on socialists and single taxers, 249; leads in enactment of land value tax legislation, 416-19, 421-23; repeal of his taxes threatened by National Government, 419-20; his interest in Henry George, 424
- Social Democratic Federation, its formation stimulated by George, 231, 238-39
- Social Problems*, writing of, 63; in Norwegian, 447
- Social Statics* (Spencer's), history of, 286-304; abridged revision of, 303-304
- Socialism, confusion of George's ideas with, 227-30; British, and George, 230-40; American, and George, 240-45; evils of land monopoly recognized by, 245-53; contrast between George and, 254-61; fundamental barrier between George's teachings and, 261-66; its philosophical base narrower than George's, 266-70; and individualism, 271-74; its attack on the wage system, 275-80; its present status with relation to George's followers, 281-84
- Socialization, of rent, ethical justification of, 133-49; fiscal justification of, 149-61
- Society, its functional control of the individual, 537; George's ideal, 542
- Sociology, and professional philosophy, 1-3
- South Africa, land value taxation in, 394 n.
- South America, land value taxation in, 456-57
- South Australia, land value taxation in, 391-92
- Spargo, John, on cause of wage-slavery, 277

- Special privilege, as a differentiation of land from capital, 106-107
- Specialization, and labor theory of property, 136-38
- Spence, Thomas, forerunner of George, 180-84, 189 n.
- Spencer, Herbert, complimentary copy of Progress and Poverty sent to, 53; George finds him conceited, 61-62; disagrees with George on land ownership, 64; attacked by George for his The Man Versus the State, 73-74; anticipator of George, 165; his earliest thoughts on land, 235-92; recants on land, 292-308, 313-15; George's book attacking, 308-15; his reaction to George, 315-22; his synthetic philosophy attacked by George, 322-35; his evolutionary concept questioned by George, 524
- Spinoza, anticipates George, 195-96
- Standard* (New York), founded by George, 69
- Standards, 498-99, 503, 512
- State, The*, a weekly published by George, 54 and n.
- Steffens, Lincoln, once a disciple of George, 462 and n.
- Sullivan, J. W., charges George with plagiarism, 170
- Sun Yat Sen, George's influence on, 461-62
- Surplus-value, socialist theory of, 256-58, 275
- Sweden, single tax activity in, 447 n.
- Swinton, Prof. Williams, friend of George, 48; influences Appleton to publish Progress and Poverty, 52
- Sydney (N. S. W.), land value taxation in, 393
- T
- Tahanto (Mass.), single tax colony, 444
- Tasmania, land value taxation in, 388, 390, 393
- Taxation, abolition proposed of all, except land values, 131-33; theories of, 150-51; George's canons of, 151-57, 519
- Texas, land value taxation in, 434-35
- Theology, George's attempt to join political economy and, 365-66
- Theory, suspect in economics, 481
- Thomas, Norman, and work of George, 245 n., 466; his democratic collectivism, 266-69, 271; socialist faith of, 283
- Tilden, Samuel J., George "stumps" for, 46-47
- Tolstoi, converted by Henry George, 459-61
- Tories. See Conservative party
- Trapelo (Mass.), single tax colony, 444
- U
- Unearned increment, not peculiar to land, 106-109; land value an, 113-14; John Stuart Mill on, 202-203, 207; tax, in Alberta, 402; mentioned in Weimar Constitution, 449-50; its place in German political economy, 450, 456
- Unemployment, ended by socialization of rent, 521
- United States, land value taxation in, 424-46; single tax colonies in, 442-45
- University of California, George's address at, 47
- Unmoved Mover, Aristotelian, 6
- Uruguay, land value taxation in, 457
- Use, value in, 89-91; separable from ownership, 159
- Useful, what is, 90-92
- Utopia, George's, 544-45, 552-62
- V
- Value, definition of, 88-99, 106-109
- Values, adjustment of moral, 10; avoided by many economists, 482;

- the place of, in economics, 484-91, 494, 496, 498-99, 514-15. See also Land values
- Vancouver (B. C.), land value taxation in, 399-400
- Victoria (Australia), land value taxation in, 393
- W
- Wages, definition of, 87-88; law of, 110, 113-19, 120-21; lowered by machinery, 124; constantly forced down by rent, 126; low, the solution of, 129-33; will rise with socialization of rent, 521
- Wages fund theory, George's attack on, 82-86, 88, 121
- Wages system, socialists vs. George on, 275-80
- Wagner, Adolph, his socio-political theory, 450-51
- Wall Hill (Miss.), single tax colony, 444
- Wants, problem of satisfying, 5; contrasted with ideals, 6-7, 8, 10 n., 12-14
- Washington, single tax defeated in, 430 n., 432-33
- Wealth, defined, 88-100, 121; distribution of, 110-19; cause and effect of increased production of, 124, 129; sapping of, through taxation, 153
- Webb, Sidney, on George's influence in England, 235; and Beatrice, on rent problem, 247-48
- Weimar Constitution, mentions unearned increment, 449-50; leaves land taxation to German States, 455
- Western Australia, land value taxation in, 393
- "What the Railroad Will Bring Us," early magazine article by George, 39, 41
- Whitlock, Brand, a disciple of George, 462, 463
- Wilson, Woodrow, on Henry George, 464 n.
- Winnipeg (Man.), land value taxation in, 402
- Wisconsin, land value taxation measures in, 439-41
- World War, its effect on Canadian land value taxation, 400, 402, 404
- Y
- Yass-Canberra, advanced land policy in, 394; an enclave of economic rent, 442 n.
- Youmans, E. L., fatalism of, 332