

INDEX

- Ager publicus* in Rome, 137 ff.
 Agrarian problem, etc. See Land
 Agrarian Revolution in England, 163 ff.
 Agriculture, relation to the economic process, 8-9; only one aspect of land question, 14
 Akkad, 122 ff.
 Ancient history, difficulties in economic interpretation of, 106
 Ancient land tenure, 119 ff.; "free land" tradition of Hebrews and others, 125 ff.; in Greece, 128 ff.; in Rome, 135 ff.
 Anderson, Benjamin, 21 n., 28-29
 Anderson, James, 45 n.
 Anthropology, unpopularity of generalizations in present-day, 107-8; its handling of primitive private property, 108
 Aristotle, 132
 Aryan problem, and primitive communism, 109, 150-51
 Ashley, W. J., 156 n.
 Assyria, 124-25
 Atkins, W. E., 63 n.
 Austrian school, and value theory, 20. See also Value; Marginal utility Avebury, Lord, 109 n.
 Babylonia, 124-25
 Bachofen, J. J., 109 n.
 Baden-Powell, B. H., 112 n.
 Baker, N. D., 89 n.
 Beloch, K. J., 130 n., 143 n.
 Berle, A. A., 53 n.
 Berr, Henri, 134 n.
 "Black Death," the, 159 ff.
 Blanshard, Paul, 196 n.
 Böhm-Bawerk, E. von, 25 n., 62 n.; and land-capital distinction, 68-69, 79-80
 Boucke, O. F., 66 n.
 Breasted, J. H., 123 n.
 Brinkman, Carl, 117 n., 167
 Brodrick, G. C., 162 n., 163 n.
 Brown, H. G., his interpretation of cost of production, 30 ff., 35 n.; discussion of relation between land value and rent, 42-44; his exposition of nature of land rent, 51-52; on land site, 73 n.; on cost of production as distinguishing land from capital, 74-77; land value taxation not necessarily a single tax, 179 n., 194 n., 195 n.; on land price, 201-2; answers objections to land value taxation, 205-6.
 Bücher, K., 143 n.
 Burton, J. E., 196 n.
 Bury, J. B., 130 n.
 Cannan, E., 41, 44 n., 73 n.
 Capital, pays income to land, 53; transition to, 55; contemporary approaches to, 58 ff.; dependent on land, 58,

- 87 ff., 210-11; historical concepts of, 58 ff.; modification of classical approach to, 59 ff.; classical definition of, 60; must be separated from land, 60 ff.; contrast between objective and subjective approaches to, 61-63; subjective approach to, 61-64; great dispute as to meaning of, 66; accepted definition of, 67; implications of land-capital controversy, 67; contemporary refusal to separate, from land on technical grounds, 67-68; reproducibility and, 69 ff.; cost of production and distinction of, from land, 73-75; summary of reproducibility argument distinguishing, from land, 73-76; absurdity of refusing to distinguish, from land, 77-79; functional importance of distinction of, from land, 78-79; ethical arguments distinguishing, from land, 80 ff.; refusal to separate, from land purely descriptive, 83-84; conclusion of discussion of land-capital separation, 84-86
- Capitalism, poverty not peculiar to, 1; its dependence upon land, 87 ff., 90-93; interest solely in, too narrow, 98-100; in Rome, 139-40; necessarily limited to certain industrial conditions, 209-10; not the exclusive cause of monopoly or exploitation, 209 ff.
- Capitalization, and modern approach to the capital concept, 62-63
- Cassel, Gustav, 29 n.
- Cassius, Spurius, 138
- Catiline, 142
- Charles Martel, 153
- Chase, Stuart, 192 n.
- Cicero, 142 n.
- Clark, J. B., 28, 44 n.; his criticism of Ricardo, 47-48, 49 n., 61; his reinterpretation of the capital concept, 63
- Classical economics, its laws of production and distribution criticized, 16; its concepts of wealth, value, and capital seriously amended, 59. See also Economics
- Clausing, Roth, 144 n.
- Cole, G. D. H., 11 n.
- Colonnate system, in Roman land tenure, 144 ff.
- Colonus*, in Roman land tenure, 144 ff.
- Commons, J. R., 77 n., 210
- "Communism," in primitive land tenure, 108 ff.; double interpretation of primitive, 110-11; criticism of belief in primitive, 111-12, 114-15; Hebrews and semi-collectivistic treatment of land, 125 ff.; problem of, in Greek land tenure, 128-30; problem of, in Roman land tenure, 135-36. See also Socialism, Capitalism
- Consumer analysis, 203
- Consumption, and land value taxation, 192-94, 202-4
- Cornick, P. H., 199 n.
- Cost of production, approach of H. G. Brown to, 31-32; and land value, 35-36; and distinction of land from capital, 73-75
- Coulanges. See Fustel de Coulanges

- Coulton, G. G., 157
 Cunow, H., 120 n., 151
 Cuq, E., 122 n.
 Curtler, W. H. R., 164 n.
- Damaschke, A., 125 n.
 Dareste, C., 109 n.
 Darrow, Clarence, 89 n.
 Davenport, H. J., his definition of value, 28; his approach to capital, 65-68, 79, 83 n.; objections to land value taxation, 204 n.
 Davy, G., 122 n.
 Definitions, in economics suspected, 59; of land and capital criticized, 60. See also Classical economics, Economics Delaporte, L., 122 n.
 Depreciation of capital and land, contrasted, 76-77
 Dewey, John, 37, 200, 220
 Distinctions, importance of, in economics, 71-72; land-capital, 60 ff.; absurdity of refusing to make, in economics, 77-79
 Distribution, and land, 213-16; and proportioning of income, 215-16. See also Clark, Land value taxation, Production
 Doane, R. T., 174 n.
 Domesday Book, 157 n.
 Dopsch, Alfons, 154 n., 158 n.
 Douglas-Irvine, Helen, 158 n., 162 n., 168 n., 170-71
 Driver, S. R., 129 n.
- Earned income, meaning of, 215-16
 Economic history, difficulties in writing, of ancient times, 106
 Economic interpretation of history, not limited to any one technology, 105-6; applied to Rome, 143 ff.
 Economic problems, perhaps depend on a single, fundamental one, 2; land question may be a key to, 217
 Economic reform, cannot be confined to any one system or technology, 101; must pay some attention to land question, 14
 Economic value, its connection with philosophic value, 19-20. See also Value, Land value
 Economics, historical reaction from classical systems, 3, 59; not impressed by unities, 2-3; welcomes the technical and paradoxical, 5; deals fundamentally with "extraction" and "conversion," 9-10; deals with man's wants, 10; contemporary refusal of, to make definitions, 17; institutional approach to, 59; functional approach to, 59; combination of functional and ethical approaches, 82-83; and ethics, 68-69, 81-82, 219-20; synthesis in, and land question, 216-18; cannot afford to neglect land question, 221-24
 Egypt, 121-24
 "Eleventh Commandment," in Hebrew land law, 125 ff.
 Ely, R. T., 15 n., 69, 76
 Enclosures, in England, 163 ff.
 Engels, F., 25, 90 n.
 England, land tenure in, 161 ff.
 Ethics, and economics, 68-69, 81-82, 219-20; arguments from, distinguishing land

- from capital, 80 ff.; and economic functionalism, 82-83; operational point of view in, 219-20
- Europe, land tenure in continental, 168 ff.
- Ewald, G. H. A. von, 128 n.
- Fairchild, H. P., 53 n.
- "Farm relief," implications of, 7-8. See also Agriculture
- Faucher, J., 171 n.
- Ferrero, G., 143 n.
- Fertility. See Land fertility, Value
- Fetter, F. A., 41-42, 44, 50 n.; and recent approach to capital concept, 61-63, 67-68, 77-79
- Feudalism, and land tenure, 147 ff.; controversies about, 148-49; origins of, 149 ff.; beginnings of, 153 ff.; extent of, 149 ff., 155; anticipations of, 149-50; hierarchy in, 155; no distinct concept of property in land in, 158-59; and communal treatment of land, 158-59; decline of, 159 ff.
- Fief. See Feudalism
- Fillebrown, C. B., 195 n.
- Fisher, E. M., 196 n., 198
- Fisher, Irving, 64-65
- Flaminius, 139
- Frank, Tenney, 137-38, 143 n.
- "Free land," economic meaning of, 211-14. See also Land, Land value taxation
- French Revolution and land tenure, 168-69
- "Functionalism." See Economics
- Fustel de Coulanges, N. D., 111-12, 130 n., 144 n.
- Gadd, C. J., 122 n.
- Garland, Hamlin, 89 n.
- Garnier, R. M., 167 n.
- George, Henry, 28 n., 49-50, 53, 176, 178 n., 180-81, 187, 205, 220, 224-25
- Ghoshal, U. N., 113 n.
- Gibbon, Edward, 143 n.
- Glötz, G., 129 n., 130 n.
- Goldenweiser, A. A., 114 n.
- Golz, T. von der, 171 n.
- Gonner, E. C. K., 164 n.
- Gossen, H. H., 26 n., 27 n.
- Gostrell, Harriß, 171 n.
- Gracchan Land Laws, in Rome, 140-42
- Gracchus, Gaius, 141-42
- Gracchus, Tiberius, 140-41
- Greece, land question in, 128 ff.; and common property in land, 129-30; landed property in, not characterized by large estates, 130; growing land problem in, 131 ff.; land problem in, and slavery, 134-35
- Guiraud, P., 112 n., 130 n.
- Hammurabi Code, 122, 124
- Handcock, P. S. P., 125 n.
- Haney, L. H., 47 n., 50 n.
- Han-seng, Chen, 173 n.
- Hanssen, G., 109 n.
- Hardy, E. R., Jr., 144 n.
- Haxthausen, A. F. L. M. von, 109 n.
- Hebrews, and semi-communal treatment of land, 125 ff.
- Heichelheim, F., 120 n., 121 n., 125 n.
- Hesiod, 130 n.
- Hewett, W. W., 44 n.
- History, difficulties in "objective," 104-5; difficulties in economic and social, 105; of

- the land question not yet written, 103; of ancient land question, 119 ff.; of Greek land question, 128 ff.; of Roman land question, 135 ff.; of feudal land question, 147 ff.; of post-feudal land tenure, 159 ff.; of land tenure in England, 161 ff.; of land question important, 174-75
- Holden, A. C., 196 n., 198-99
- Holdsworth, W. S., 166 n., 168 n.
- Homan, P. T., 66 n.
- Homer, 130 n.
- Homeric era, and land tenure, 129-30
- Hopkins, E. W., 113 n.
- Hoskyns, C. Wren, 161 n.
- Howe, F. C., 89 n., 195 n.
- Hoyt, Homer, 37 n., 196 n.
- Icilius, Lucius, 138
- Improvements on land. See Land, Capital, Reproducibility
- Income, meaning of earned and unearned, 215-16
- India, early landed property in, 112 n.
- Individual, meaning of term, 189-90; and earned-unearned income, 215-16
- Individualism, and land value taxation, 179-81; land value taxation offers a compromise between, and socialism, 186 ff., 216
- Industrialization, degree of, in various countries, 11 n.
- Industries, "primary" and "secondary," 11; their dependence upon land, 87 ff.
- Ingalls, W. R., 174 n.
- "Institutionalism." See Economics
- Irreproducibility of land. See Reproducibility, Land, Capital
- Jessopp, A., 148, 161 n.
- Jevons, W. S., 26 n., 27 n.
- Johnson, A. H., 164 n.
- Johnson, Tom, 89 n.
- Jones, H. S., 138 n.
- Jubilee, and Hebrew land law, 126-27
- King, W. I., 174 n.
- Knight, F. H., 29 n., 112 n.
- Knight, M. M., 161 n.
- Kötzschke, R., 156 n., 158 n.
- Kovalevsky, M., 171 n.
- Labor, distribution of, 10 ff.; dependence of, upon land, 12-13; cause or measure of value? 22; pays income to land, 53
- Labor theory of value, English, 21 ff.; classic statement of, by Smith, 22 n.; ambiguities in, 23 ff.; and Marx, 24-25; criticized by Veblen, 63
- Lacombe, P., 109 n.
- Laidler, H. W., 99
- Land, basic element of production, 6, 14; definition of, 6; always the focus of exploitation, 14-15; not a social product, 38; prior to capital, 58; must be separated from capital, 60 ff.; implications of land-capital controversy, 67; reproducibility and, 69 ff.; is it in any real sense reproducible? 69-70; an attempt to answer the arguments challenging its non-reproducibility, 70 ff.; distinguished

- from improvements, 71-72; cost of production and distinction of, from capital, 73-75; can it like capital, be said to be "made"? 73; summary of reproducibility argument distinguishing, from capital, 73-76; absurdity of refusing to distinguish, from capital, 77-79; functional importance of distinction of, from capital, 78-79; and space, 79; ethical arguments distinguishing, from capital, 80 ff.; refusal to separate, from capital purely descriptive, 83-84; conclusion of discussion of land-capital separation, 84-86; capital depends upon, 87 ff.; and production of wealth, 208-9; the basis of all monopoly, 209 ff.; meaning of free, 211-14; how to remove its exploitative power, 211 ff.; more important in distribution than in production, 213-16; basis of the economic problem, 217
- "Land economics," its real significance, 9-10
- Land fertility, and reproducibility, 72-73, 76-77, 85
- Land laws, in ancient Rome, 133 ff.
- Land nationalization, not implied by land value taxation, 187-89
- Land price, and land value taxation, 200-202
- Land question, ignored in contemporary discussion, 5; mistaken connotations of, 4-5; present interpretation of, criticized by contemporary economists, 15; too often ignored by liberals and radicals, 89-90; contains source of injustices ascribed to capital, 98-99; interest in, may undercut socialism and "planning," 101; pragmatic value in concentrating upon, 101; history of, not yet written, 103; in ancient times, 119 ff.; in Greece, 128 ff.; in Rome, 135 ff.; spectacularly significant in Rome, 145-47; not confined to ancient times, 147; and feudalism, 147 ff.; its historical importance, 174-75; widest interpretation of, 207 ff.; its "novelty," 211; its implications, 216-18; may contain key to economic problems, 217; must be considered by liberals and radicals, 220-21; does not imply a naïve approach to economics, 221-24; must be understood, 224-25
- Land rent. See Rent
- Land site, and reproducibility, 72-73, 76-77, 85
- Land socialization, Chap. V
- Land speculation, and spurious land values, 40; and land value taxation, 196-200; prevalence of, 196-200; and depression, 196-200; the effect of land value taxation upon, 200
- Land tenure, primitive, 107 ff.; communism in primitive, 108 ff., 135-36; criticism of belief of communism in primitive, 111-12; distinction between land and goods in primitive, 115-18; ancient, 119 ff.; in ancient Near East, 121 ff.; in ancient Greece,

- 123 ff.; semi-communal treatment of, by Hebrews, 125 ff.; in Rome, 135 ff.; and feudalism, 147 ff.; early German, 150-52; transition to modern, 159 ff.; post-feudal, 159 ff.; in England, 161 ff.; Agrarian Revolution and enclosures in England, 163 ff.; contrast between English and Continental, 168-69; in France, 168-70; in Germany, 170-71; in Russia, 171; importance of feudal dissolution for, 172; difficulty in determining, in the United States, 173-74
- Land value, different and unique, 18-19, 55, 85; relation between, and value, 34; and cost of production, 35-36; social nature of, 36 ff., 182-83, 188-89; not connected with production or reproduction, 39; spontaneous and casual, 39-40; relation between, and rent, 42-43. See also Value
- Land value taxation, suggests controversies and prejudices, 176-77; involves a program of social change, 177-78; not simply fiscal reform, 177-78; not necessarily a single tax, 178-79; and socialism-individualism controversy, 179-81; essence of, 182-83; an example of privilege or benefit theory of taxation, 184-85; and collection of unearned social fund of land value, 184-85; in a sense, not a tax at all, 185-86; a compromise between "socialism" and "individualism," 186 ff.; does not mean land nationalization, 187-89; fiscal aspects of, 190 ff.; academic protests against, 190-91; specific effects of, 191 ff.; and the production of wealth, 191-93, 202-204; and consumption, 192-94, 202-204; cannot be shifted, 193-94; its certainty, 194-95; general effects of, 195 ff.; and land speculation, 196-200; effect of, on land speculation, 200; and land price, 200-202; and tenancy, 200-202; and unemployment, 203; more than tax reform, 204-206; objections to, considered, 204-206; means the "freeing" of land, 211-14; and distribution of wealth, 213-16; and socialism, 216. See also Taxation
- Lapsley, G. T., 114 n., 149 n.
- Latifundia*, not characteristic of Greece, 130-31, 134; and Rome's collapse, 142 ff.
- Lauderdale, Lord, 24 n.
- Laveleye, E. L. V. de, 109 n., 110
- Law of rent. See Ricardo, Rent
- Leslie, T. E. C., 170 n.
- Levett, A. Elizabeth, 161 n.
- Liberalism, and the land question, 89-90, 220-21
- Licinian law of Roman landholding, 139 ff.
- Licinius, 139
- Lippmann, Walter, 212-13
- Lipson, E., 149 n., 152 n.
- Livy, 145
- Lloyd, W. F., 26 n.
- Locke, John, 22 n.
- Longfield, S. M., 26 n.
- Loria, A., 93-94
- Louis, Paul, 143 n., 144 n.
- Lowie, R. H., 114-18
- Lycurgus, 131-33

- Madsen, A. W., 195 n.
 Maine, Henry, 108-10, 117
 Maitland, F. W., 148, 152 n.
 Malthus, T. R., 23, 45 n.
 Manlius, Marcus, 139
 Manning, Cardinal, 220
 Manor. See Manorial system
 Manorial system, general relation to feudalism, 155 ff.; exposition of, 156 ff.; decline of, 159 ff.
 Marginal utility, 20, 59; its explanation of value, 25-27; difficulties in, 27-29, 69; and cost of production, 74. See also Value
 Mark, and primitive German communism, 109, 150-51
 Marriott, J. A. R., 160 ff.
 Marshall, Alfred, 48 n., 74
 Marx, Karl, and labor theory of value, 24-25; recognizes importance of land question, 90-93. See also Socialism, Capital, Land, Value
 Marxian interpretation of history, 105
 Maspero, G. C. C., 123 n.
 Maurer, G. L. von, 109 n.
 Maverick, L. A., 196 n.
 McCulloch, J. R., 45 n.
 McLennan, J. F., 109 n.
 Means, G. C., 53 n.
 Menger, Carl, 26 n.
 Mesopotamia, 121 ff.
 Meyer, E., 123 n., 130 n.
 Mill, J. S., 48 n.
 Milman, H. H., 128 n.
 Mommsen, Theodore, 109 n., 136, 146 n.
 Monopoly, based upon land, 87 ff., 209 ff. See also Capital, Capitalism Morehouse, E. W., 15 n.
 Moret, A., 122 n.
 Morgan, L. H., 108-109
 Morier, R. B. D., 171 n.
 Muirhead, J. F., 203 n.
 Müller, Max, 109
 Munro, D. C., 150 n.
 Nasse, E., 109 n.
 Near East and land tenure, 121 ff.
 Neilson, F., 125-26
 "New Deal," 8, 202. See also "Planning"
 Nitzsch, K. W., 146 n.
 Objective value. See Value
 Oldfather, W. A., 146 n.
 Old Testament, semi-communal treatment of land in, 125 ff.
 Olufsen, O. C., 109 n.
 Oppenheimer, Franz, 96-97
 Overproduction, 192 n.; general and specific, 202-204
 Patterson, W. R., 129 n., 146 n.
 Petrie, Flinders, 123 n.
 Petty, William, 22 n.
 Philippus, Marcius, 142 n.
 Philosophy, relation to value theory in economics, 19-20; and the moral implications of economic problems, 219-20
 Physiocracy, 7
 "Planning," ignores land question, 89-90; has too narrow and restricted an interest in technological capitalism, 100; its uncritical acceptance of socialism, 222
 Pliny, 143-44, 147
 Plutarch, 132-33, 140-42
 Pöhlmann, R., 130 n.
 Post, L. F., 195 n.
 Pound, Arthur, 37 n., 196 n.
 Primitive land tenure, 107 ff. See also Land tenure

- Primitive property, criticism of belief of communism in, 111-12
- Primogeniture, 167-68
- Private property, anthropology's handling of primitive, 108; and early European civilization, 120-21
- Private property in land, and land value taxation, 187-89
- Production, its dependence on land, 10 ff., 208-209; and land value taxation, 191-93, 202-204
- Property, primitive, in land, 107 ff.; criticism of communism concept in primitive, 111-12; private, and early European civilization, 120-21
- Prothero, R. E., 165 n.
- "Public land," in Rome, 137 ff. See also Ager publicus, Rome
- Punic Wars, 139-40
- Quick, Herbert, 89 n.
- Radical theory and the land question, 89-90, 220-21
- Rent, looked upon as purely descriptive, 16; newer critical approach to, 41-42; relation between, and land value, 42-43; regarded as a surplus, 45-47; assumptions involved in law of, 47; Ricardo's law of, 45-47; the widest interpretation of the law of, 49-50; an exposition of, 50 ff.; no direct connection with productivity or utility of land, 52; its social nature, 52, 182-83; why an unearned surplus, 52 ff.; a passive factor, 53; subtracted from other economic income, 53 ff.; private retention of, opposed to other economic interests, 54. See also Ricardo, Value, Land
- Reproducibility, its bearing on value, 34; transition to, 55; important in separating land from capital, 69 ff.; contemporary economic approach to, 69-70; an attempt to answer the arguments challenging land's, 70 ff.; a difficult term, 72-73; summary of argument from, distinguishing land from capital, 73-76. See also Land, Capital, Value
- Ricardo, David, 23-24; and the "law of rent," 41-42, 45-47, 53, 68-69, 194 n. See also Rent
- Rogers, Thorold, 148, 161 n.
- Rome, land question in, 135 ff.; question of communism in its early land tenure, 135-36; land laws in, 138 ff.; "fall" of, 143 ff.; economic disintegration in, 143 ff.; agrarian problem spectacular in, 145-47; transition of land tenure from Roman to feudal period, 148
- Rooke, John, 45 n.
- Rostovtzev, M. I., 134-35, 137, 143 n.
- Round, J. H., 152 n.
- Russell, Bertrand, and land question, 95-96, 97 n.
- Sakolski, A. M., 37 n., 196 n.
- Salvioli, G., 143 n.
- Schaeffer, Henry, 110 n.
- Scheftel, Yetta, 195 n.
- Schroeder, W. von, 109
- Scott, W. A., 66 n.

- Seebohm, F., 148, 152 n., 160-61
 Seeck, O., 143 n.
 Seligman, E. R. A., 26 n., 45 n., 146 n.
 Sellery, G. C., 150 n.
 Sextius, 139
 Shearman, T. G., 195 n.
 Simkhovitch, V. G., 143 n.,
 144 n.
 Simpson, H. D., 196-97
 Single Tax, 176, 178-79, 220.
See also Land value taxation
 Site. See Land site, Land value
 Slavery, and land in Greece,
 134-35; and land in Rome,
 145-46
 Smart, William, 26, 27 n.
 Smith, Adam, 22-23, 62 n.
 Smith, R. F., 196 n.
 Social, meaning of, 189-90;
 and earned-unearned income,
 215-16
 Social forces and land value,
 36 ff. See also Land value,
 Rent
 Social problems, not to be regarded as novel, 1; land question may be a key to,
 217
 Social sciences, not impressed by syntheses, 2
 Socialism, its interest in the land question, 90 ff.; limits itself to modern technologies, 99-100; and land value taxation, 179-81; land value taxation offers a compromise between, and individualism, 186 ff., 216; uncriti-cal acceptance of, by "planning," 222. See also Marx,
 Capital, Capitalism
 Socialization of land. See Taxation of land value, Chap. V
 Socialization of rent, an appropriate term, 178
 Society, meaning of, 189-90
 Sociology, unpopularity of generalizations in present-day,
 107-108
 Solon, 132-33
 Sombart, W., 94
 "Source" argument, and distinction between land and capital, 80-81
 Space and land, 79
 Speculation. See Land speculation
 Spencer, Herbert, 109 n., 115 n.
 Starcke, C. N., 97-98
 Steffens, Lincoln, 89 n.
 Stephenson, A., 138 n.
 Subjective capital. See Capital
 Subjective value. See Value
 Sumer, 122 ff.
 Synthesis, economic, demanded,
 3-4, 15; in economics and land question, 216-18
 Tannenbaum, Frank, 173 n.
 Taussig, F. W., 66 n.
 Tawney, R. H., 164 n.
 Tax reform, land value taxation not confined to, 177-78;
 importance of, 206-207. See also Land value taxation
 Taxation, canons of, 183-85;
 theories of, 183-85; to be distinguished from land value taxation, 185-86. See also
 Land value taxation
 Tenancy and land value taxation, 200-202
 Tenure. See Land tenure
 Theory of value, 19. See also
 Value, Land value
 Thomas, Norman, 94, 99, 202
 Torrens, Robert, 45 n.

- Toutain, J. F., 130 n., 144 n.
 Tugwell, R. G., 8, 66 n., 82, 220
 Tylor, E. B., 108
- Underconsumption, 192 n., 202-204
 Unearned income, of land, 81-82; meaning of, 215-16.
See also Rent, Ricardo
 Unearned increment, of land, 81-82. See also Rent, Ricardo
 Unemployment, and land value taxation, 203; general and technical, 203-204
 Utility. See Marginal utility
- Value, two classes of, in economics, 18-19, 40-41, 55; a very controversial term, 18; early interpretations of, 20; marginal utility theory of, 20, 59; objective approach to, 20 ff.; Austrian school and, 20; subjective approach to, 20; labor theory of, in England, 21 ff.; "cost" or "exchange" interpretation, 21; important distinction between cause and measurement of, 27, 29, 33; exchangeability and utility, 29; possible compromise between objective and subjective approaches to, 29 ff.; need for objective factors in, 30 ff.; cannot be exempt from cost, 33; relation between, and land value, 34; must draw a distinction between reproducible and irreproducible, 34-36, 41; does not depend entirely upon social forces, 37 ff.; modification of classical approach to, 59. See also Land value, Marginal utility
 Veblen, Thorstein, 59; and approach to capital, 63-64
 Verinder, F., 125-26, 195 n.
 Vinogradoff, P., 151-53, 158 n.
 Violet, P., 109 n.
- Wallace, H. A., 8
 Walling, W. E., 99
 Wallis, Louis, 192 n.
 Walras, L., 26 n., 27 n.
 Wealth, 59, 76-77. See also Value, Capital
 Weber, Max, 112, 151, 159-60, 171-72
 Wellhausen, J., 128 n.
 West, Edward, 45 n.
 Westerman, W. L., 144-45
 Whitaker, A. C., 23 n.
 Whitlock, Brand, 89 n., 195 n.
 Wolman, Leo, 174 n.
- Young, Arthur, 170 n.
 Zimmern, A. E., 131