

INDEX

- Adams, Charles Fred., insular cases, 349-350.
- Algeld, Gov. John P., in the Chicago-Pullman strike, 217-220, 333; his incorruptibility, 258-259.
- Archbold, John D., telegram on anti-trust bills, 238-239.
- Aristocracy, artificial, a fruit of Privilege, 88-106, 355-359, 362-376; natural aristocracy, 89, 411; in ancient Greece, 355-356, 357-358, 359; in ancient Rome, 362-372; under the old régime in France, 372-376; how to destroy, 410.
- Aristotle, his formulation of knowledge, 355; on the "living machines," 356, 360, 365.
- Arthur, P. M., organizes the locomotive engineers, 165-167; enjoined, 187.
- Asphalt Trust, in Venezuela, 342-343.
- Astor fortune, its source, 29-33, 383.
- Baer, George F., of the Anthracite Coal Trust, 14.
- Baker, Hon. Robert, Morton resolutions, 242-243; anti-railroad pass resolution, 245, 282.
- Bascom, Professor John, on perversion of democracy, 93; teaching of political economy, 296, 298.
- Beck, James M., on New Jersey corporation law, 54, 405.
- Bell, General Sherman, in Colorado strike, 203-204, 205, 207-211; Colorado political corruption, 259-260.
- Brewer, Justice David J., on the lawyer as lawmaker, 235-236; on changed political conditions, 263.
- Bryce, James, early equality in America, 1, 9; rise of large private fortunes, 7; changes in athletic sports, 76; return of principle of monarchy, 93; changed characteristics of lawyers, 176-177; political power of railroads, 247-248; breakdown of municipal politics, 262; private gifts to education, 286; varied university studies, 293.
- Cæsar, Augustus, master of Rome, 368-369.
- Cæsar, Julius, Rome in the time of, 362-364, 367-368, 370-371.
- Cairnes, Professor J. E., absorption of wages and interest by rent, 382, 384.
- Capital, a factor in production, 22; defined, 143, 149-150; falling returns to, 143-144; not superior to labor, 149-150; nor to be confounded with privilege, 149-150, 151, 156-157, 412; free natural opportunities and, 394.
- Carnegie, Andrew, views on concentrated wealth, 14; origin of fortune, 45-53, 391, 399-400; library building donations, 69, 300; gifts to education, 299-301; disgrace of dying rich, 299 n., 300 n., compared with Roman rich men, 365; Mæcenas, 368.
- Centralization of government, 325-337.
- Chicago-Pullman strike, 188-190, 198, 213-220.
- Child labor, nature and extent, 119-120, 125.
- Churchman, The*, the churches and the poor, 307-308; political corruption, 312.

- Citizens' Alliance, in Colorado, 170-172, 205.
- Clarke, Senator William A., residence, 63-64; financial facilities, 366.
- Cleveland, Grover, Chicago-Pullman strike, 213, 216-217, 218-219, 224, 302, 332-333; the "Executive Order," 337; the Hawaiian Islands, 339.
- Coal Trust, treaty with labor union, 167; protected by tariff, 397; how to destroy, 387-390; police and constabulary and, 328-329.
- Cœur d'Alene, labor trouble, 213, 220-226, 333.
- Colorado coal and metallurgic strike, 201-212, 219, 224, 271.
- Corporation, the United States Steel, see Steel Trust.
- Corporations, laws and powers relative to, 54-55, 57-58, 231-232, 404-406; their modification, 407-408.
- Courts, used by Privilege, 175-185, 186-200, 201, 275-276, 380; abdication in Colorado, 207-209, 211, 216, 226; influenced by politics, 348-350.
- Czolgosz, Leon F., presidential assassin, 139.
- Debs, Eugene V., in Chicago-Pullman strike, 188-189, 198, 214.
- De Toqueville, Alexis, on early equality in America, 1, 15, 91-92, 100 n., 110; tribute to American women, 80-81; absence of money in elections, 325, 337; on the press, 270-271, 280; dangers to great republics, 325, 337; importance of freedom in minor affairs, 329-330.
- Divorce, growth of, 83-85; prevalence in Rome, 371-372.
- Elliot, Dr. Charles W., the scab as hero, 157-158, 159, 302.
- Ely, Professor Robert Erskine, average income of wage-earners, 116.
- Foreign aggression, 338-353.
- Fortunes, private, no great ones early in Republic, 3-4, 6, 7-9, 15; source of present, 14-26, 29-62; evil effects on their possessors, 9-13, 63-72, 73-106; among the Greeks, 355-358, 359, 361-362; among the Romans, 362-372; in France before the Revolution, 372-376.
- France, ancient, "rotten before ripe," 362; immediately before the Revolution, 372-376.
- Franchises, public, 38-48, 50, 55, 230, 234, 238-246, 247-249, 251, 253-254, 258, 259, 260, 267-268, 282-283, 317, 326-327, 328, 334-335, 399-402, 403-404, 408, 409, 412.
- Franklin, Benjamin, on early equality in America, 1-3, 4-5, 90-91, 97-98, 411; in popular tax fight, 89 n.; on German immigration, 118-119; on fruitfulness of marriage in America, 126; respecting slavery, 26.
- Free companies, see Laborers.
- Froude, James Anthony, Caesar's Rome, 367-368, 370.
- Gardiner, Charles A., powers of the President, 334-335.
- Generation, laws of, 85-86, 126-127; interferences with, 86-87; checks on, in Rome, 371.
- Gladden, Rev. Washington, tainted church gifts, 297, 316, 317-318.
- Goff, Recorder John W., charges as to crime, 138.
- Gould, George, nature of his fortune, 40; his palatial residence, 66.
- Gould, Jay, on Erie Railroad in politics, 248-249.
- Greece, how Privilege destroyed, 354-362.
- Grenell, Judson, cost of living in America and Europe, 147.
- Grosscup, Judge Peter S., Chicago, Pullman strike injunction, 188-189; newspaper copyright injunction, 276.
- Hadley, Dr. Arthur T., dependence of the university, 289-292, 293.
- Hancock, John, his fortune, 3-4; tried to corner whale oil, 26; gift to his sweetheart, 72 n.

- Hawaiian Islands, how ceded to the United States, 338-339, 343.
- Hewett, Abram S., on limited suffrage, 103.
- Hoar, Senator George F., the Philippines, 346, 347.
- Holt, Byron W., Steel Trust capitalization, 52.
- Hunter, Robert, extent of involuntary poverty, 122; underfed school children, 132.
- Hyde, James Hazen, life insurance prince, 57.
- Immigration, early, 2, 3, 4-5, 6; hostility to, 117-119.
- Injunctions, used against labor unions, 168, 171, 175, 185, 186-200, 380, 409, 412; decides Colorado election, 200; in Chicago strike, 323-333; remedy for, 407, 409, 412.
- Insane, increasing percentage of, 134-135; to lessen number of, 412.
- Insurance companies, financial methods of, 57-58, 60, 61; influence in politics, 59, 234-235, 247, 249-250, 251; their privileges, 405-406.
- Inter-State Commerce Commission, 239-242, 246, 317.
- Jefferson, Thomas, indentured laborers, 5 n.; absence of poverty in America, 5-6, 90, 131; no highway robberies, 6, 135; fundamental rights to land, 17-18; importance of access to land, 112-113; natural and artificial aristocracies, 89, 411; mobs in cities, 140; danger from the judiciary, 175; legislative branch of government, 175; acceptance of gifts while in public office, 245, 246; freedom of the press, 269-270; on slavery, 26, 301 n.; spoken of as "impractical theorist," 361; New England town meetings, 326, 412; Louisiana purchase, 347; "a mouthful the more," 351.
- Jury, trial by, limitation of, 103-105, 106. Also see Injunctions.
- Kropotkin, Prince, bountifulness of Nature, 411.
- Laborers, early conditions of, 1-3, 4-6, 15; present hardships, 7-9, 11-12, 25-26, 109-120, 379, 388, 389; importation of indentured, 5; dependence upon land, 18-19; American slave, 19, 102; Russian serf, 19; taxation upon the toil of, 24-25; organizations of, into unions, 143-155, 156-157, 160-161, 379; dangers of unions of, 156-172; laws against importation of contract, 145-146; age limit, 147-149; strikes and boycotts, 151-153; the "scab," 157-159; expansionist and autonomist, 160-161; centralization of unions, 159-162, 172; blackmail, 162-164; "authorization," 165-167; treaties or wage agreements, 150, 167-168; open and closed shops, 169; injunctions, 168, 182-185, 186-199; soldiers used against, 168, 171, 172, 201-212, 213-226; "Free Companies," 168-169; Citizens' Industrial Association and Citizens' Alliance, 169-172, 205; Colorado strike, 170-172, 201-212, 213-219; -Coeur d'Alene trouble, 220-226; Chicago-Pullman strike, 188-190, 198, 213-220; Coal and Iron Police and Constabulary used against, 328-329; in ancient Greece, 355-356, 357, 359, 360; in ancient Rome, 363, 364-365; how to better conditions of, 388, 389, 390, 393-394, 410-412.
- Land, when easy to get, 1-2, 4-5, 109-110; appropriation of, 15-16, 110-115, 143; Roman laws, 16; fundamental rights to, 17-18; not properly property, 18-19; power from possession of, 19-23, 24, 25, 143-144, 156, 176-177; speculation in, 20-22, 30-33, 143-144; taxation of value of, 24, 380-394, 407, 408, 409, 410-412; foundation of great fortunes, 29-62; railroad grants of, 37-38; at base of aristocracy, 88; relation of wages and interest to value of, 143-144, 146,

- 149; how to destroy monopoly of, 380-394, 407, 408, 409, 410-412; monopoly of, in ancient Greece, 355-356; in Rome, 364-365, 366, 367; in France before Revolution, 372-373.
- Lawson, Thomas W., on evil business methods, 60, 250; political corruption, 250, 261.
- Lawyers, employed by, 176-177, 407-408.
- Lecky, W. E. H., marriage and divorce in Rome, 371-372.
- Lighton, William R., Western land stealings, 36-37.
- L'impôt unique*, 385.
- Lincoln, Abraham, returning monarchy, 101-102; equal rights, 106, 150; capital not superior to labor, 149-150.
- Mackay fortune, sources and uses of, 33-35, 65, 68.
- Mæcenas, 368.
- Mahaffy, Professor J. P., Greek social and political conditions, 353-356, 357, 361.
- Marriage, changed views respecting, 81-85, 100-101; degradation in Rome, 371-372; and in France, 375-376.
- McClure, S. S., increase of murders and homicides, 138.
- McGlynn, Rev. Edward, excommunication and reinstatement, 308-312.
- McKinley, President, and Cœur d'Alene trouble, 333; the Hawaiian Islands, 339.
- Meade, Professor E. S., Steel Trust finance, 52.
- Meat Trust, based upon railroad privileges, 401-402.
- Military, distrust of civil government, 100-101; in strikes, 189, 201-212, 213-226, 329, 333, 380, 412-413; to lesson use of, 412-413; in Hawaiian Islands, 338-339; in Santo Domingo, 340, 341; in Panama, 344; in the Philippines, 347-348; centralization of, 351; use of marines in peace time, 351-352; the spirit of, 352-353; in Greece, 356-357, 362; in Rome, 368-370; acts against the press, 271.
- Mill, John Stuart, slaves of toil, 138-139; obsolete in the universities, 295; tax on rent cannot be shifted, 385; taxation of unearned fortunes, 386.
- Mitchell, John, plea for organization of wage-earners, 115-116, 161; on injunctions, 175.
- Mommsen, Theodor, relaxing of family life in Rome, 371.
- Moody, John, estimate of country's wealth, 8, 236.
- Morals, deterioration of public and private, 9-13, 25, 26, 44, 51-62, 73-87, 104-106, 123-125, 129-130, 135-140, 162-172, 229-246, 247-263, 266-321, 325-326, 327-328, 338, 353; how to improve, 409-413; morals in ancient Greece, 355-358, 359, 360, 361-362; in Rome, 362-372; in France before the Revolution, 374-376.
- Morgan, J. Pierpont, his business methods, 51-62, 366; patron of liberal arts, 69-70.
- Morton, Paul, railroad rebates, 239-243.
- Ostrogorski, Moissei Yakovlevich, centralization in politics, 263, 330-331.
- Order, the natural, 409-413.
- Parkhurst, Rev. Charles H., Philadelphia "comfortably rotten," 258.
- Parry, David M., president Citizens' Industrial Association, 170.
- Peabody, Gov. J. H., of Colorado, 200, 202-203, 206, 207-212, 329.
- Pericles, Golden Age of, 354-355; funeral oration of, 360-361.
- Perkins, George W., insurance companies in politics, 58, 59, 234.
- Philippines, our conduct in, 104, 346-348.
- Plato, philosophy of, 355, 356.
- Pliny, great estates ruined Italy, 364, 366.
- Political Economy, the true, 287-288; as taught in the universities, 288-302.

- Politics, Privilege in, 43, 58-59, 201-202, 211-212; attacks upon suffrage, 100-103, 210-211, 212, 326-327, 352, 361; courts and, 199-200, 207-209, 211, 216, 226, 348-350; in Greece, 356-357, 362; in Rome, 367, 368-369; purification of, 412.
- Porto Rico, the insular cases, 348-350.
- Post, Louis F., principles of marriage and divorce, 84; Colorado injunction, 199-200; "chair of economics," 293.
- Poverty, little, in early days of Republic, 1, 4-6, 7; present extent, 8-9, 11, 12; cause of, 14-26, 77-78, 105, 109-120; penalties of, 103-106, 121-140.
- Press, its bondage to Privilege, 267-285, 306, 412.
- Privilege, meaning, 16-17, 379; various kinds of, 17-25; classified, 24-25, 62, 380, 409; types of Princes of, 29-62; how Princes of, live, 63-72, and their amusements, dissipations and marital relations, 73-87; breeds the aristocratic idea, 88-106; despoils the masses, 105-106, 109-120; causes deterioration, 121-140; not to be confounded with capital, 149-150, 412; compels laborers to organize, 143-155, 156, 157, 159; treaties with labor unions, 165-168, 172; engages "Free Companies," 168-169; Citizens' Alliances and, 169-172; the courts and, 175-185, 186-200; uses soldiers, 201-212, 213-226; corrupts politics, 229-246, 247-263, 330-332, 337; the press and, 267-285; the university and, 286-305; the pulpit and, 306-321; influence on legislation, 326-327, 328, 329; favors foreign aggression, 338; civilizations gone before and, 354-376; remedy for, 379-413.
- Pulpit, dependence of Privilege, 306-321; to free the, 412.
- Railroads, land grants to, 37-38; public highways, 38-39, 40; rebates, 41-44, 46-47, 48, 50, 317, 399-402; discriminating rates, 39; centralization of, 39-40, 55; in politics and legislation, 233-234, 238-246, 247-249, 251, 253-254, 258, 259, 260, 326-327, 328; influence over the press, 282-283; injunctions and, 334-335; futility of attempts to regulate, 402-403; government operation of, 403-404, 408, 409, 412.
- Rent, its nature and operation, 20-22, 117, 382-387, 389-394, 411-412.
- Rockefeller, John D., his fortune and its source, 41-44, 401; Chicago University, 297-299; foreign missions' gift, 316-321; compared with Roman rich men, 365.
- Rockefeller, Jr., John D., telegram to six senators, 238-239; the American Beauty rose, 320, 373.
- Rogers, Henry H., delicate finances, 60-61; railroad rebates, 316-317.
- Rogers, Thorold, appropriation by rent, 21.
- Rome, land laws of, 16; destroyed by Privilege, 362-372, 381.
- Roosevelt, President, divorce laws, 83; political corruption funds, 234; Littlefield anti-trust bill, 238; Morton rebate matter, 239-243; railroad passes, 245-246; exclusive orders, 335-337; Santo Domingo, 340-342; Panama Canal, 343-345; police duty on Western Hemisphere, 345-346.
- Root, Eliu, constitutional limitations, 333.
- Ryan, Thomas F., insurance matters, 57-58.
- Sallust, conditions in Rome, 362-363, 370.
- Santo Domingo, protocol with, 339-342.
- Schiff, Jacob, high finance, 58.
- Schurz, Carl, political "fat-frying," 237; Panama, 344-345.
- Schwab, Charles M., the State Trust, 52-53, 391, 405; his palatial residence, 64.
- Seabury, Judge Samuel, on injunctions, 181, 186-187, 190, 196-198.

- Shearman, Thomas G., distribution of wealth, 9, 116, 117 n.
- Single tax, see Taxation.
- Slavery, industrial, among us, 360; black, 19, 102; Russian serf, 19; in Greece, 355-357, 359; among the Romans, 363, 370; religious argument for negro, 315.
- Smith, Adam, wages, 4, 120; pecuniary value of a child, 120, 126; law of generation, 126-127; university teaching, 293-294; his teachings obsolete in universities, 294-295; dependence of the clergy, 306-307.
- Smith, Goldwin, growth of aristocratic idea, 96; breakdown of municipal politics, 262; government by commission, 327-328.
- Socrates, philosophy of, 355, 356.
- Spahr, Charles B., distribution of wealth, 8, 117 n.
- Spitzka, Edward A., crime bred by social conditions, 140.
- Standard Oil Company, history of, 41-44, 399, 401; privileges, 317, 383, 391, 397, 399, 401; in politics, 237-239, 250; influence on education, 296-299.
- Steel Trust, Directors of, 8 n.; its organization, 49-50, 51-55, 56-57, 366; its privileges, 43, 391-392, 395, 396-397, 399-400, 405; attitude toward labor unions, 146, 168; promotion syndicate earnings, 233; how to destroy, 391-392.
- Suffrage, attacks of, 100-103, 210-211, 212, 326-327, 352, 361; in Greece, 355, 356; in Rome, 364, 368.
- Sugar Trust, in politics, 252, 255, 259.
- Suicides, increasing percentage of, 133-134, 412.
- Tacitus, military rule in Rome, 369-370.
- Taft, Secretary William H., trial by jury, 104-105; labor injunctions, 104, 187.
- Taine, H. A., ancient régime in France, 372-376.
- Tariff, a form of privilege, 24, 43, 45, 48, 50; does not raise wages, 144-146; its operation, 395-397; influence on legislation, 233, 234-235, 236, 237, 259; influences on some universities, 296; the insular cases, 348-350; should be abolished, 397, 399, 409, 411-412; Roman jus commercii, 365.
- Taxation, upon the toil of labor, 24-25, 117, 386-387, 409; the way it helps monopolies, 273-274; four maxims of, 386; on land values, 24, 384-394, 407, 408, 411. See Tariff also.
- Tolstoy, existing position of science, 292; inequity of private property in land, 381-382.
- Unions, labor, see Laborers.
- Universities, influence of Privilege on, 286-305, 412.
- Vanderbilt family, nature of fortune, 40; style of living, 66, 67, 71.
- Wages, when high in America, 2, 4-5; cause of falling, or stationary, 22, 143-144; at present tend to a minimum, 115-116, 129, 144; law of, 143-144; why higher in America than in Europe, 145, 146, 149; not increased by tariff, 144-146; trade unions and rate of, 150-154, 162; how permanently to raise, 411-412.
- Walker, F. Sydney, industrial old-age limit in America and England, 148-149.
- Warner, John De Witt, expense of college life, 303-304.
- Washington, George, his fortune, 3, 4; indentured laborers, 5; eagerness to acquire land, 26.
- Wealth, great increase in production of, 7, 11, 12; its distribution in early days, 1-6; unequal distribution begins, 7; present distribution, 7-13; cause of unequal distribution, 14-26; types of those who have most, 29-62; display of, 63-72; effects on owners of great, 73-106; compared with

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| Rome, 367; how to effect moreequal distribution of, 379-413. | palatial residence, 63; great gamepark, 67.         |
| Whitney, Edward B., corporationlaws, 54-55.                  | Young, Arthur, social conditions inold France, 374. |
| Whitney, William C., high finance, 60;                           |   |