

ILLUSTRATIONS

Morris Hillquit	Frontispiece
	PAGE
Society, under Capitalism, crushed between Industrial Combination and Competition	20
Socialists believe in the abolition of the Senate and the veto power of the President.	64
Socialists would curb the Court's power of injunction	65
Socialists would begin their reforms with the child, the bearer of the nation's future. . . .	83
Socialism is the legitimate child of Capitalism and the latter cannot help begetting the former	99