HENRY GEORGE SAYS HE WILL NOT WITHDRAW, BUT WILL STAY IN THE FIGHT TILL THE VOTES ARE COUNTED.

CHARACTER STUDIES OF HENRY GEORGE.

I CERTAINLY shall not withdraw. Our fight is against Bossism. Our platform is against Bossism. To overthrow Bossism, Crokerism, Plattism is a fight—not a petty. I am in the field to stay while a man remains to war on Bossism.
If Mr. Low or his supporters desire the overthrow of Bossism, let them join our movement. Let them support the only Jeffersonian ticket in the U.S. Its triumph will end Bossism. Its triumph will give Greater New York true reform. I shall never desert the men with me in our Great Cause.—HENRY GEORGE to the Journal.
