

CHAPTER X

SOME GENERAL OBJECTIONS TO REMEDIES SUGGESTED

None of the numerous suggestions offered for improving conditions go to the root of the difficulty. They are palliatives and will result merely in transferring money from one set of people to another set of people, and mainly from those who are poor or comparatively poor, to those who are rich or well-to-do. They provide no new jobs, and do not lessen any wrongful exploitations of the people by the trusts and other privileged groups in excessive prices or rates.
