

Contents

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| 1. Landownership—Its Philosophical and Political Aspects ....  | 1  |
| Landownership among primitive peoples. Land tenure among the American aborigines. Primitive Mexican land tenure. Summary.   |           |
| 2. The European Background .....   | 11 |
| The feudal system. The introduction of feudalism in England. The progress of feudal land tenure in England.   |           |
| 3. Land Systems of the Colonial Era .....  | 18 |
| The classes of chartered companies. The merchant adventurers. The development of the joint stock company. The Plymouth and Virginia Companies. The early New England and New York land systems. Absentee ownership in New England. The town proprietors of New England. The New England plantation allotments. The New Hampshire grants. The Dutch land system in New York. The Rensselaerwick manor. |           |
| 4. Virginia and the Proprietary Colonies .....   | 33 |
| Land distribution in Virginia. The proprietary colonies. The proprietary grants in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The Maryland palatinate. The Carolinas. The Georgia colonial land policy. The quitrent system. The motives and methods of colonial land distribution. Summary on colonial land systems. Philosophic conceptions of landed property in the colonial era.                               |           |

---

- 5. The Colonial Land Speculations ..... 46
 The early Maine speculation. The early southern land companies. The Indian Line. The Transylvania Company. George Washington's interest in western lands. Franklin's "Vandalia Company." Population pressure as a factor in westward movement. Summary.
- 6. Land and the American Revolution ..... 59
 The abolishment of the law and custom of primogeniture. Jefferson's influence on land-tenure reform. The Continental Congress and land—the Northwest Ordinance. Land in the Constitutional Convention. Landownership proposed as a voting qualification. Land taxation in the Constitutional Convention.
- 7. Post-Revolutionary State-Land Disposal ..... 69
 The disposal of New York state lands. The Phelps and Gorham Purchase. The Wadsworths, lords of the Genesee. The Ogden and Macomb Purchases. Speculation in Pennsylvania and Virginia land warrants. The Georgia "Yazoo" lands. Massachusetts and the Maine lands. Summary.
- 8. The Early History of the Public Domain ..... 82
 The Northwest Ordinance. Sale of land to the Ohio Company. The Symmes Purchase. The Connecticut Company. Summary.
- 9. The Early Public Land Administration—Town-Jobbing and Land Engrossment ..... 94
 Town-jobbing on public land sites. Early public land engrossment. The prairie regions opened up. Early British speculations in western lands. Summary.
- 10. The Louisiana Territory ..... 106
 The antedating of Spanish grants. The squatter claims. Some prominent Spanish land claims. Summary.

- 11. The Public Domain under the Pre-emption Acts ..... 124
The impact of the "Specie Circular." The passage of the Pre-emption Acts. The Swamp Land Acts. Landlordism and land engrossment in the pre-emption period. Land companies in land engrossment. Summary.
- 12. The Public Domain Since the Homestead Act ..... 136
The "opening up" of new lands. Frauds and abuses in the Homestead era. The California and New Mexico land grants. Mexican land grants in New Mexico. Summation of land-disposal policies.
- 13. Texas Land Disposal ..... 148
Galveston Bay and Texas Land Company.
- 14. The Early Railroad Land Grants ..... 156
Early grants to railroads. Illinois Central Railroad—the first large railroad land grant. Summary.
- 15. The Transcontinental Land Grants ..... 165
The Northern Pacific Railroad. The origin of the "bonanza farms." Summary.
- 16. Political Repercussions of Public Land Policy ..... 175
The early conflict of opinions. Followers of George Henry Evans. The "safety-valve" theory.
- 17. Landownership and Land Disposal in Local Politics ..... 185
Land reforms in New York State and New England. Land politics in the former proprietary states. Summary.
- 18. Forest and Mineral Lands Developments ..... 199
The forests and their exploitation. Government timber-land disposal. The Weyerhaeuser timber-land holdings. Why the public should own forest land. The disposition and concentration of mineral lands. Impact of the California gold discoveries. The engrossment and concentration of mineral lands. The engrossment of coal-bearing lands. The engrossment of iron-ore-bearing lands. Exploitation of oil-bearing lands.

- 19. Farm Tenancy and Its Problems ..... 217
 Farm tenancy before the Civil War. Farm tenancy after the Civil War. The evils of farm tenancy. The Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act. European policy on farm tenancy. Tenancy and leased-land statistics.
- 20. The Rise of Urban Real Estate Values ..... 230
 Post-Revolutionary boom towns. Washington, the Federal City. Rise of real estate values in the City of New York. The story of Chicago real estate. San Francisco and Los Angeles real estate. Corporation urban engrossment. Summary.
- 21. The Land and Taxes ..... 248
 The European precedents. Early colonial land taxation. Land taxation in the early federal period. Land taxation merges into the general property tax. Taxation of improvements. The incidence of land taxation. Proposals for taxation as remedies for the land question.
- 22. The Progress of Land Reform in the United States ..... 262
 The pioneers in land reform. Early American land reformers. The land question and early American economists. Labor and the land question. The coming of Henry George. The influence of George on land reform and taxation.
- 23. Landownership: What of the Future? ..... 277
 Bungling administration of the public domain. Land reform and international problems. Should we have land reform? The dangers confronting us. What are the remedies? Absorption of the economic rent of land and untaxing improvements. The progressive tax on land. Limitations to landownership. Social control of land use. Land nationalization not necessary.