

INDEX.

---

- Agriculture, total product of, 96; wages in, 115-117.
- Aldrich, Senator, his report on wages, 105 et seq.
- Arnold, Arthur, cited on concentration of land, 7.
- Basel, distribution of property in, 74, 75; taxation in, in 1881, 74, 75, 85-87; distribution of incomes in, 85-87; shares of capital and labor in, 87; taxation in, in 1429, App. VIII.
- Bateman, John, quoted on distribution of land in England, in 1874-1875, App. II.
- Baxter, Dudley, quoted, 75.
- Booth, Charles, quoted, 76.
- Capital, amount of, in the United States, in 1890, 125-128; amount of, in England, in 1885, App. VI.
- Capital and labor, relative shares of, in Basel, 87, 88; relative shares of, in France, 88; in Saxony, 89; in the United Kingdom, 90-92; relative shares of, in American manufactories, 97, 98; in American railways, 98, 99; relative shares of, in the United States, 119, 120.
- Commons, enclosure of, 8.
- Currency, see gold.
- Debt, minimum, in the United States, in 1890, App. IV.
- Debt, public (English), small until 1756, 8; increase of, during Napoleonic wars, 12; (American), amount of, in 1860, 40; amount of, in 1865, 40.
- Domesday Book, New, quoted 7, App. II.
- Employment, average number of days per annum, in Massachusetts, 101; in Illinois, 101; in England, 102.
- Farms, value of personalty on, 5, 48, 149, 155; owned and rented, 53.

- Giffen, R., argument that inequalities of wealth are lessening, 15 et seq., 93, 94, App. III.; quoted on relative shares of capital and labor, 90-92; quoted on capital and incomes in England, App. VI.
- Gold, change in value of, in 16th Century, 5; during the Napoleonic wars, 11, 12; since our Civil war, 39, 109-118.
- Holmes, George K., quoted on distribution of property, 54; quoted on minimum debt in the United States, App. IV.
- Homes, owned and rented, 53.
- Incomes, English, distribution of, in 1868, 75; in 1885, 78, 79; in 1688, App. I.; aggregate of, in the United Kingdom, in 1885, 78, 79; in 1881, 92; Parisian, distribution of, 79-83; Prussian, distribution of, 83, 84; tendency towards concentration of, in Prussia, 83, 84; in Basel, distribution of, 85-87; tendency towards concentration of, in England, 93, 94; aggregate of, in the United States, 103, 104; distribution of, in Boston, 122, 123; classification of, in the United States, 124-129; taxation of, in the United Kingdom, general table, App. VI.; Schedule D and E, App. VII.
- Interest, fall to 3% in the 18th Century, 8; rise of, during the Napoleonic wars, 12; average rate of, in the United States, 119, 120.
- King, Gregory, table of English incomes in 1688, 7, App. I.
- Labor, see capital and labor.
- Leroy, Beaulieu, quoted on distribution of incomes in Paris, 79-81.
- Manufactures, total product of, 97; profits in, 98.
- Mill, J. S., quoted on distribution of wealth, 3.
- Mortgages, rate of interest on, 119, 120; taxation of, 148, 151, 152; situs of, 152, note 2.
- Paris, distribution of incomes in, 79-83.
- Personalty, ratio of, to realty, 5, 149, 150, 151; ratio of, to realty, by classes, 65; taxa-

- tion of, 147-155; distribution of, in Baltimore, App. IX.
- Poor-rates (English), rise of, during the Napoleonic wars, 9; reduction of, since 1834, 14.
- Porter, G. R., argument that inequalities of wealth are lessening, 18.
- Primogeniture, in Middle Ages, 5; abolished in the United States, 26.
- Probate Records, in England, 16-19; in New York State, 55-68; in Massachusetts, 69, 70, App. X.; in Baltimore, App. IX.
- Property, tendency towards concentration, in England, 7, 15-19; in the Northern States, 33, 70; in the United States, 70; in Basel, 74, 75; present distribution of, in England, 22, 23; present distribution in the United States, by sections, 44-46; between city and country, 47, 48, 63; table, 69; present distribution of, in Massachusetts, 51, 52, 70, App. X.; in Michigan, 52; in New York State, 56-65; in Basel, 74, 75; distribution of, in England and America, contrasted, 67; tangible, amount of, 48; real and personal, distribution of, 65; private, amount of, 127, note 1; American, amount of, held abroad, App. V.
See also Real Estate, Personalty, and Probate Records.
- Property owners, number of, in England, 20 et seq.; number of, in the United States, 66.
- Prothero, R. E., cited on concentration of land, 7, 12.
- Prussia, distribution of incomes in, 83, 84; tendency towards concentration of incomes in, 83, 84.
- Puritan immigration, character of, 24.
- Railroads, capitalization of, 41; capital invested in, 41; taxation of, 153, 154.
- Real Estate (English), value of, in the Middle Ages, 5; present distribution of, 20, 21, App. II.; (American), value of, North and South, 30; distribution of, North and South, 32-34.
See also Personalty.
- Rents, competitive, 5; in Paris, distribution of, 80; ratio of, to incomes, 80, 81; in Boston, distribution of, 121-123.

- Savings-banks, depositors in, 57, 58.
- Slavery, economic influence of, 29-31.
- Slaves, property in, concentrated, 31; value of, 39.
- Silver, see Gold.
- Taxation, light in the Middle Ages, 6; indirect, established at the Restoration, 6; indirect, developed during the Napoleonic wars, 9, 10; indirect, reduced by the repeal of the corn-laws, 14; New England system of, 25; indirect, established by our Federal government, 27; indirect, increased during Civil war, 34 et seq.; in Basel, in 1881, 85-87; of property and incomes, compared, 134, 135; of dwelling-houses, in 1798, 138; of incomes in Europe, 139, 140; of inheritances in Europe, 139, 140; national, sources of, in the United States, 140, 141; of liquor, how distributed, 141, 156, 157; of tobacco, how distributed, 141, 142; of sugar, 142; of clothing, 142; national, distribution of, 143; of personalty, recent increase of, 147, 148, 150; of mortgages, 148, 151, 152; local, distribution of, 157; of incomes in England, App. VII.; in Basel, in 1429, App. VIII.
- Tax-payers, classification of, in Massachusetts, 51, 52.
- Unemployed, in Massachusetts, 100, 101; in Illinois, 101.
- Wages, in England, 92; in Massachusetts factories, 97; in cities and villages, 106, 127; in large and small establishments, 107; in urban establishments since 1860, 109-112; in mines, 113-115; in agriculture, 115; in rural districts, 127.
- War, effect of, on wages and interest, 9-13, 38, 39, 109.