* * *

Patriotism is your conviction that this country is superior to all other countries because you were born in it.—George Bernard Shaw.

* * *

"Dolan," said he, "what does them letters 'MDCCCXCVII,' mean?"

"They mean eighteen hundred and ninety-seven."

"Dolan," came the query, after a thoughtful pause,

"don't yez think they're overdo'in' this spellin' reform a bit?"—The Green Bag.

* * *

"Well, my man," said the house surgeon, cheerily, to the new patient, "how do you feel?"

"He seems all right," said the nurse, "I've just taken his temperature."

"Good. Have you had anything to eat, my man?"

"I had a little, sir."

"What did they give you?" "This lady gimme a piece of glass to suck, sir."—London Globe.
