

CONTENTS

|                        | PAGE |
|------------------------|------|
| FOREWORD . . . . .     | ix   |
| PREFACE . . . . .      | xi   |
| INTRODUCTION . . . . . | xvii |

I

THE GOAL IS SELF-GOVERNMENT

|   |   |
|---|---|
| British democracy the best—The hard test—Authority the alternative—Government by reason—Press and public require reason—All share responsibility—Black pages—Growth of conscience . . . . . | 1 |
|---|---|

II

THE WISH TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT

|   |    |
|---|----|
| British attitude toward morals—towards law—Desire to be a Member of Parliament—The title—The price paid—The questionnaire—Altruistic ambition?—or, a means to an end—What is expected—Egoism in Parliament—Summary of virtues—Ignorance—Laziness—Labour rules—Discipline from Germany—Increase of closure—Cure for discipline . . . . . | 15 |
|---|----|

III

PARLIAMENT MEN AT WORK

|  |    |
|--|----|
| The boy—The Candidate—The Figurehead—The Election—The Old Machine—The private Member—Stone-walling by the Services—The Home Office mind—Private Members' Bills—A parable—Despotism of the Departments—Ministry of Health—Rating of Land Values—Resolutions—Questions and the Adjournment—Supply Days—Should one specialize?—Bills in Standing Committee—Political economy—Office—Rotation of Parties . . . . . | 37 |
|--|----|

IV

PARLIAMENT IN WAR

|   |    |
|---|----|
| Churchill's use of Members of Parliament—Fraternal Union—Irish Party in 1914—Parliament becomes Government—Dictatorship—Members of Parliaments' services—in last War—in this War—Home Guards—Shortage of 'Kickers'—Parties in abeyance—Where Parliament meets—Secret Sessions . . . . . | 69 |
|---|----|

V

PREMIER'S POWER TO DISSOLVE

|  |    |
|--|----|
| The threat of dissolution—This gives stability—but is undemocratic—Resignation or Reconstruction—Press to the rescue . . . . . | 89 |
|--|----|

VI

FOR AND AGAINST PLACE-MEN

|  |      |
|--|------|
|  | PAGE |
| The Executive in Parliament—Officials driven from the Lords—Court v. country—Offices of profit—American practice—The happy mean—A purge of place-men needed—Ministers in 1905 and 1942—Posts outside Parliament . . . . . | 101  |

VII

DEMOCRATIC CONTROL OF BUREAUCRACY

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Redress of grievances—Responsibility of Ministers—Redress by publicity—Good and bad Ministers—Redress under dictators—Police—Lesson from France—Press assistance—Control of justice—Lawyer Members of Parliament—Local Authorities—Town Clerks—Redress in America . . . . . | 123 |
|---|-----|

VIII

CORRUPTION

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Does politics pay?—Pensions—Labour's example—Cash value of a seat—Limits of behaviour—Fascist calumny—Female corruption—Anti-Semitism—Dishonesty—Compare Fascism—Catholic Church and Appeasement—Propaganda—Payment of expenses—Honours—Fascist proposals—The Police State—Bribery of electors—The cow story . . . . . | 143 |
|--|-----|

IX

IS DEMOCRACY INEFFICIENT?

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Inefficiency of the Services—Prime Minister's job—Inefficiency of Dictators—The Departments—Professional v. Amateur—Democracy ends in tyranny—A governing class afraid . . . . . | 187 |
|---|-----|

X

PARTY AND DISCIPLINE

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| History of Party—Parties with principles—Organization—Proportional Representation—The German madness—Party rules—Growth of Independents . . . . . | 203 |
|---|-----|

XI

EDUCATION IN DEMOCRACY

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Modern inventions—Public Schools—State education—Vocational training—School management—Why compulsory—The Press—The parents—Church and Chapel—State propaganda . . . . . | 221 |
|--|-----|

XII

RECONSTRUCTION OF ENGLAND

|   |      |
|---|------|
|   | PAGE |
| After-War Controls—Russia's future—Blueprints for industries—A case for the planners—Town and country planning—Valuation of land—Agricultural tenancies—State as landlord—Political and Economic Planning on increment tax—Revolution or free the land—Soviet dangers . . . | 285  |

XIII

SALVAGE CIVILIZATION BY FEDERATION

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Morale—End of colour bar—The appearance of 1949—Credits—Finance needs union—Sound currency—Federal revenues—Safety, peace, justice—Altruistic propaganda—Why the League failed . . . . . | 281 |
|--|-----|

XIV

FITTING IN HITLER'S SUBHUMANS

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Give them arms—African land and labour—Fascism and colour bar—Material progress v. trusteeship—Federation for Colonies—India today—Community representation—Sikhs and Pakhistan—Montagu Declaration—Land to fight for—Palestine and the Jews—The Administration—Arab reactions—Post-war settlement . . . . . | 307 |
|---|-----|

XV

THE VALUE OF THE LORDS

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Reform by strengthening—Representation of Corporations—or Parties—Moral influence—Church leadership—Present attendance of Peers—An elected Second Chamber—"Mend it or end it"—Historical retrospect—Critical value—Educational value—Good-natured Peers . . . . . | 331 |
|---|-----|

|                 |     |
|-----------------|-----|
| INDEX . . . . . | 351 |
|-----------------|-----|

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS

|                                   |              |
|-----------------------------------|--------------|
| Lord Wedgwood, May 1943 . . . . . | Frontispiece |
|-----------------------------------|--------------|

GRAPHICS

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Members in Savings Groups in Two Wars . . . . . | 250 |
| Cost of Living . . . . .                        | 251 |
| Income Tax in Two Wars . . . . .                | 252 |
| Rationing in Britain Today . . . . .            | 259 |
| Britons Pay Heavily for the War . . . . .       | 259 |
| Great Britain's Man Power . . . . .             | 260 |
| Increase in British War Production . . . . .    | 260 |
| Restriction of Civilian Supplies . . . . .      | 261 |
| Bombs on Great Britain . . . . .                | 261 |