Sunday Lecture Forum

FUNDAMENTAL ECONOMICS AND SOCIAL PHILOSOPHY

Part I — 15 Weeks

1. Fundamental Economics—Pre-requisite for all courses. Every evening from Monday to Friday, at 5:30 to 7:30 P.M.; also at 8 to 10 P.M. On Saturdays from 2 to 4 P.M. Ten weeks—one session each week. Text book: "Progress and Poverty" by Henry George ($1.00). No tuition fee.
2. Social Problems—Following course 1 and beginning week of December 11th. Five weeks—one session each week. Hours, same as for course 1. Text book: "Social Problems" by Henry George ($1.00). Annual subscription to "The Freeman" included with text book. No tuition fee.

Part II — 15 Weeks

3. Principles of International Trade—Six weeks—one session each week. Every evening from Monday to Friday at 8 to 10 P.M. Also on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 5:30 to 7:30 P.M. and Saturdays from 2 to 4 P.M. Text book: "Protection or Free Trade" by Henry George ($1.00). Tuition fee, $2.00.
4. Science of Political Economy—Following course 3—and beginning week of November 13th. Nine weeks—one session each week. Hours—same as for course 3. Text book: "Science of Political Economy" by Henry George ($1.00). Tuition fee, $2.00.

SPEAKERS BUREAU
Speakers on current events, social and political economy—primarily for the purpose of interesting groups in the study of Fundamental Economics—are available on request, and without charge. Write to Miss Dorothy Sara, Secretary, Speakers Bureau, Henry George School of Social Science. MU 4-6270.

ELECTIVE ADVANCED COURSES

These courses are open only to students who have completed the required courses —1 to 4 inclusive—although those who have not taken the Social Problems course (No. 2) are also eligible. The Elective Advanced Courses may be taken in any order, and more than one course a week is permissible. They will be repeated in the Spring 1940 term.

5. Philosophy of Henry George—Based upon text book of the same title by Dr. George Raymond Geiger. Eight sessions—one each week on Thursday at 8 P.M. beginning October 5th. Text book: $2.00. Tuition fee, $2.00.
6. Economic Basis of Tax Reform—Based upon text book of the same title by Prof. Harry Gunnison Brown. This course will follow course 5 which, however, is not a pre-requisite. Eight sessions—beginning Thursday, December 14th. Text book $2.00. Tuition fee, $2.00.
7. Democracy versus Socialism—Based on text book of the same name by Max Hirsch. This course is particularly recommended to instructors and those desiring to become instructors, because of its critical analysis of Marxist economic ideas and the testing of these ideas with fundamental principles. Fifteen sessions, once a week. Wednesday or Friday at 8 P.M. beginning October 4th and 6th. Text book $2.00. Tuition fee $2.00.
8. Public Speaking—Fifteen sessions, once a week. Practical instruction in the art of expression, platform presence, etc. Given for the benefit of those desiring to do lecture work in connection with the School. Beginning Wednesday, October 4th at 8 P.M. Tuition fee, $3.00.
9. Basic Principles of Writing—Fifteen sessions, once a week. This course has four definite objectives in view: (1) to arrive at the principles upon which good writing is based; (2) to give practical instruction in composition; (3) to eliminate common faults in writing; (4) to liberate and develop the student's power of expression. Text books: Twelve Ways to Build a Vocabulary, by Archibald Hart, and Commonsense Grammar, by Janet Rankin Aiken ($3.00 for both). Tuition $2.00. Commencing Thursday, October 5th at 8 P.M.

Commencing with October 8th, and for each Sunday thereafter until January 21st, a lecture-forum will be conducted in the Students Room of the Henry George School at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be no charge and you are invited to bring your friends. The schedule is as follows:
