

INDEX TO THE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST YEAR

COMPRISING NUMBERS 1 TO 52, INCLUSIVE.

The three departments, Editorial, News and Miscellany, are indexed separately. References are to numbers and pages, the figures before the dash referring to the number of the issue, and those after the dash to the page or pages of that issue. Thus: 47-6, means No. 47, page 6; 48-2, 3, means No. 48, pages 2 and 3.

N. B.—No. 48 was accidentally numbered 47. There are, therefore, two Nos. 47. The second of these is referred to in the index as No. 48.

The Public Leaflets.

From time to time THE PUBLIC will reproduce, in pamphlet form suitable for mailing in open envelopes at the one-cent rate of postage, the editorial articles of permanent interest that appear in its columns.
 These pamphlets will be supplied upon the following terms:

Single copies, delivered at office,	$0.02
Quantities delivered at office, per 100,	1.00
Single copies mailed to any address, postage paid,	.03
Single copies mailed to any address, postage paid, upon orders for 100 or more, per 100,	2.00

The following pamphlets are now ready:

1. A Business Tendency (from THE PUBLIC of September 10, 1898).
2. That Favorable Balance of Trade (from THE PUBLIC of October 22, 1898).
3. Now-Then, by E. J. Salisbury (from THE PUBlic of November 12, 1898).
4. Department Stores (from THE PUBLIC of November 12, 1898).

The Public

is a weekly paper which prints in concise and plain terms, with lucid explanations and without editorial bias, all the really valuable news of the world. It is also an editorial paper. Though it abstains from mingling editorial opinions with its news accounts, it has opinions of a pronounced character, which, in the columns reserved for editorial comment, it expresses fully and freely, without favor or prejudice, without fear of consequences, and without hope of discreditable reward. Yet it makes no pretensions to infallibility, either in opinions or in statements of fact: it simply aspires to a deserved reputation for intelligence and honesty in both. Besides its editorial and news features, the paper contains a department of original and selected miscellany, in which appear articles and extracts upon various subjects, verse as well as prose, chosen alike for their literary merit and their wholesome human interest. Familiarity with THE PUBLIC will commend it as a paper that is not only worth reading, but also worth filing.

Subscription, One Dollar a Year.

Free of postage in United States, Canada and Mexico, elsewhere, postage extra, at the rate of one cent per week. Payment of subscription is acknowledged up to the date in the address label on the wrapper.

Single copies, five cents each.
