

INDEX

- Action, sobering to opinion, 39; allowed no vent becomes dangerous, 40
- Acts of a session, The, not the product of common counsel, 103
- Adaptation, Process of constitutional, 193
- Adjustment, The principle of the freest right and opportunity of, 5-6; between the government and the individual, 18; between the government and the popular thought and need, 23-24; of the Constitution to the exigencies and new aspects of life, 192
- Advisers, Independent, in position to be masters, 139
- Agitation, fixed upon conviction, cannot be allayed, 37; free under popular government, 38; dangerous where there are no suitable institutions, 39
- America, abounds in the vitality of variety, 51; economic and social contrasts in, do not follow state lines, 180; a nation in the making, 182
- American Congress and English Parliament originally of the same model, 82, 86
- American form of government, 40-44
- American political system distinguished by the extreme vitality of its parts, 182
- American president and English king originally of the same model, 82
- American Revolution, The, a part of the Whig contest for constitutional liberties, 198-99
- Appointments to office, a severe tax on the President, 79; federal, not controlled by bosses, 215; responsible and irresponsible, 215-16
- Assemblies, representative, Development of functions of, 11-15; essential to a constitutional system, 24; need of, for discussion, 102, 103; need of genuine, 222
- Bagehot's, Mr., compliment to Americans, 59
- Barons, The, and King John, at Runnymede, 2-3; contended for the privileges of a nation, 6, 7; 53
- Bill of Rights, The, a part of the written constitution of England, 22; may be ignored by act of Parliament, 144; defines rights as against the crown, not against Parliament, 145
- Body politic, Parties our real, 218-20
- Boss, No national, 214
- Bosses and managers, Political, nominate candidates, 190; required in party organization, 206-10; natural fruits of the tree, 210; discontent with, 213-14; control selection of members of Congress, 214-15
- British North America Act, The, 146-47
- Bryce, James, on our constitutions, 147
- Burke, on what a free government is, 4; on American legislatures, 13
- Cabinet, The, an executive, not a political body, 76; two views of the character of the, 77
- Cabinet meetings deal only with larger matters of policy, not with details, 67
- Cabinet officers in line of succession

- for presidency, 64; more active than President in executing laws, 66; are shut out from Congress, 73; various sources whence drawn, 75-76
- Canada, The constitution of, an Act of Parliament, 146-47
- Candidates named by political bosses and managers, 190; too numerous for voters to select, 206
- Caucus, of each party in the Senate, has its Committee on Committees, 133; chairman of the majority, the leader of the Senate, 133-34; nearly the counterpart of the Speaker, 134
- Centralization not vitalization, 197
- Chase, Salmon P., Views of, on greenbacks, as Secretary of Treasury and as Chief Justice, 161
- Checks and balances, the orthodox gospel of government, 200; carried to extremes, 204; we must make less of, 221
- Child labor, Proposed federal legislation on, 179
- China and Russia, military nations, subjugated from without, 28-29; people in, not conscious of a common interest, 28; stagnation of peoples, 29
- Citizenship, Responsibility of, 23
- City government, Failure in, 196; reorganization in, 197
- Civil War, The, called the nation to consciousness and to action, 48; social contrast between North and South before, 218-19
- Cleveland, Mr., and his great rôle in affairs, 58; his second cabinet, 76
- Colonial charters superseded by state constitutions, 147
- Colonies, The, grown into states, 44; community of interest developed in, in struggle for independence, 44; social and economic differences between, 45-46; operated under charters from the crown, 146; task of combining, 161
- Colonists, Capacity of the, for self-government, 27; community of interest among the, 44
- Commerce, state and interstate, 170-71, 178-79; difficult to distinguish, 185-86; of great railways not the commerce of wagon roads, 192
- Committee on Committees of each party in Senate, 133; influence of caucus chairman through, 134
- Committee on Rules of the House of Representatives, 93-95; controlled by the Speaker, 95
- Committees, Standing, of the House of Representatives, 89, 96; each, a miniature House, 97; minority representation on the, 97-98
- Commons, House of, see House of Commons
- Communities, develop by internal forces, 182; irrepressible life of our, 182-83
- Community, What constitutes a, 26-27, 46; the character of a, cannot be presented, 53
- Conference committees of House and Senate, 106-7
- Congress, Some Presidents refused to lead, 70; overborne only because President has nation behind him, 70-71; illegitimate means by which President may influence, 71; political powers of the President in his relations with, 72-73; meant to be a reformed parliament, 82; a part of the Government, 84, 85; making laws exclusive sphere of, 85; alone among legislatures of the world in rejecting leadership of Government in legislation, 85; and Parliament had the same origin, 82, 86; developed under a theory of checks and balances, takes part in governing, 86-87; organization of, unlike that of Parliament, 87; can exercise no powers except those conferred by the Constitution, 148-49; powers not granted to, remain with the states, 149; no friction with the courts, 162; members of, and the decisions of federal judges, 163-64; general powers granted to, cover the life of the nation, 174-75; question of power of, to determine internal social and

- economic structure of society in new States, 176-77; choices of growth forced upon, 177; limitations likely to be observed by, 179; is the immediate government of the people, 184; chief domestic power of, to regulate commerce, 185; increasing complications of this power, 185-86; complete separation of, from the executive, 200-1; subject to party dictation, 211
- Congressional Record, The, disappointing, because lacking reality, 105
- Constitution of the United States, The first eight amendments to the, a charter of liberties, 8-9; intended to be a copy of the government of England, 42; foresight and sagacity of framers of, 45; Mr. Bagehot on the, 59; as practical a document as Magna Carta, 60; not a mere lawyer's document but a vehicle of life, 67-70; authorizes the President to recommend measures to Congress, 72; bids him speak, 73; does not seem to make the President a prime minister, 77; statutes must conform to the, 147; tests of, may be applied in state courts, 155-56; the whole expansion of our national life has been read into, 157-58; courts determine adequacy of, 167; read to meet needs of nation's life, 169-70; what reading shall it now have? 178; commercial regulation the chief object of the Union under, 185; a vehicle of life, 192; every general term of, has a varied meaning, 193; legitimate extension of, by judicial interpretation, 193
- Constitution, The makers of our federal, followed the scheme expounded in Montesquieu, 56; Whig theorists but practical statesmen, 57; made the President only the legal executive with power of veto, 59-60; enacted efficient laws, 70; conceived our houses of Congress under a theory of checks and balances, 86; foresight of, 173; left greater part of legal regulation to the States, 179; separated legislature from the executive, and courts from both, 199-201
- Constitutional Convention of 1787, The, did not see the influences making for change, 43; the federal state devised by, 46; Newtonian theory of government prevailed in, 199; embodied Whig dynamics in the Constitution, 199-200; its most serious success, 200-1
- Constitutional government, see Government, Constitutional
- Constitutional law, Our, broad and elastic, 57; must look forward, not backward, 193
- Constitutional questions may originate in any court of any grade, 151
- Contrasts, Social, between sections of country, 218-20
- Conviction, Power of the impulses of, 36-38
- Coördinated power, We must think more of, 221
- Counsel, and criticism never more needed, 102; common, is not jumbled, 103; compounded of many views in actual contact, 104; in committee rooms but not in the House, 103, 105; open, the essence of power, 110; common, maintained only by genuine representative institutions, 222
- Courts, The, 142-72; the ultimate safeguard of individual privilege and of governmental prerogative, 142; the citizen's safeguard against the abuse of power by the government, 143; men are individuals in respect of their rights only in, 143; have power to restrain the government, 144; inference of, that laws shall be tested by the Constitution, 146; renders our system unique, 147; will not hear abstract questions, 147-48; instruments for the protection of the individual, 149; balance-wheel of the whole system, 142, 149; jurisdiction of, 150-51; are the, as

- available for the poor as for the rich? 152-54; average integrity of American, high, 153; processes in, complicated and expensive, 153-54; all, branches of the people's forum, 154; jurisdiction of federal and state, 155-57; balance of our system lies in the federal courts, 157; the statesmanship of control lies in the, 157; German critics on our, 161; members of Congress and decisions of the, 163-64; no wiser than their judges, 165; Congress and the executive might manipulate to their own ends, 166; index of the nation's character, 167; statesmanship of adaptation expected of, 168; influence of Marshall in formative period of, 168; have met the needs of the nation's life, 169-70; relation of, to opinion, 171-72; liberal interpretation of Constitution by, 193; the conscience and courage of, essential to conservative progress, 194-95
- Courts, English, Broad and liberal rulings in the, 145
- Courts, the gauge of excellence of a constitutional government, 17-18
- Czar, A written constitution would not change the power of the, 2
- Darwin followed in all discussion of structure or development of things, 55
- Darwin vs. Newton in development of political theories, 55-56
- Debate, not a creative process, 88; the means of common counsel, 102-3; results of, 104; individualizes men, 113
- Declaration of Independence, The, intensely practical, 4; takes rights for granted, 8
- Delegates, Rival bodies of, 216
- Democratic party, Reverence for the, 221
- Despot, a creature of circumstances, 20
- De Tocqueville, on the people of the colonies, 27; on the American citizen, 150
- Development, Privilege of separate, secured by the Constitution, 191-92
- Dicey, A. V., on our constitutions, 147
- Differences in interest and character of groups of States, 180-82
- Discussion, Need of searching and constant, 102; newspaper, not of the necessary kind, 102-3; must be combined and compounded, 103
- Dissatisfaction with state legislation, 186-88
- Documents, constitutional, The spirit of, 8-9
- Douglas, Stephen A., and Mr. Lincoln, 62
- East, The, the most provincial part of the Union, 127
- East and North, regions of concentration, 116-17; a common habit and attitude in the, 118-19
- Economic conditions, Uniform regulation of, of our whole country impossible, 179
- Economic development of country, has obliterated many boundaries, 179-80; diversity in, 218
- Economic problems, to be solved, 178
- Elections, Efforts to separate local and national, 208
- Electors, presidential, Provision for action of, 60-61
- Elizabeth, Queen, a mettlesome leader of a mettlesome race, 31; England's suitable embodiment, 32; a foolish woman but a great statesman, 32; a self-constituted leader, 34
- England, the mother of constitutional governments, The constitution of, unwritten, 1; defined, 22; in the time of Elizabeth, 30-32; as never before, 31-32; came to her full consciousness as a nation, 32; prestige of, 34; political development of, dormant, 35; radical changes in government of,

- the result of the American Revolution, 198-99
- English constitutional history centred about development of Parliament, 10
- English government, The ministers of the day the real executive in the, 200-1
- English king and American President originally of the same model, 82
- English Parliament and American Congress originally of the same model, 82
- English politicians not clear theorists, 55
- Englishmen, The immemorial birth-right of, 2
- Executive, The, a new name for the Government, 15; subject to the laws, 24; and legislature in England united in counsel, 40; not necessarily so in the United States, 41; in the hands of the President, 107; must be made a real body politic, 221
- Executive, The federal, not dispersed into its many elements, 205; in itself a unit, 205
- Executive, the state, Dispersion of, from top to bottom, 205
- Federal government, see Government, Federal
- Federalist*, The expositions of the, full of the theory of checks and balances, 56
- Filipinos can be given constitutional government but not self-government, 52-53
- Frederick the Great, and his making of Prussia into a nation, 33-34; leader as well as master, and self-constituted, 34
- French Revolution, The convictions of the, aroused plain men, 36
- Frontier, not traceable since 1890, 48
- German criticism of our courts, 161, 167
- Germanic feudal nation, Government as master in the early, 28
- Golden Bull, The, exacted by the Magyar nobles of Hungary, 6
- Government, of laws, and not of men, never existed, 17
- Government, Four stages and forms of development of, 28; government as master, 28-30; through sagacity and fitness, 30-37; the stage of agitation, 37-40; the leaders of the people become the, 40-42; a living thing, accountable to Darwin, 56; no successful, without leadership, 57; two meanings of the term, 83; synthesis, not antagonism, the whole art of, 106; no sovereign, ever in America, 146; assumed by the people, 147; reformed by the election of good men to conduct it, 165; every, of men not of laws, 165; must have organs, 191; Hamilton's theory of, 199-200; a species of, in solution, 204; solidified by external authority of party, 204-5; maintenance of machinery of, complex and difficult, 207; functions of, farmed out to outside parties, 216; still in solution, 216-17
- Government, Constitutional, What is, 1-24; a theory of politics, 1; definition of, 2; had its rise at Runnymede, 2; the history of, the history of political liberty, 3; philosophy of, 4; an instrumentality for the maintenance of liberty, 6; means for maintaining, 10; representative bodies an indispensable part of a, 13-14; object of, 14, 18; approach to the essence of, 15-16; a government of law, 17; has exalted the individual, 16, 18; the atmosphere of, that of opinion, 20, 22; distinguished from an unconstitutional, 21-22; ultimate and essential objects of a, 23; essential elements and institutions of a, 24; basis of a, 25; nothing but a community can have a, 26; four stages of development of, 28-42; full machinery of, dormant in England, 35; agitation the essence of, 38; parliamentary English, and

- American forms of, 40; not concentrated in the federal government, 41; each state a separate, 41; reasons for having a group of states united in a federal system, 44; based upon common understandings, interests, impulses, and habits, 46, 51; the states a great contribution to, 50; can be given the Filipinos, 52-53; how to study, 82; counsel and criticism needed in business of, 102; regions as well as population must be represented in a, 116-18; duty of statesmen to study right accommodation of parts in, 140-41; President a controlling force in, 141; exists in completeness when every individual is a partner of the government, 143; whole balance of our system lies in the federal courts, 157; the statesmanship of control vested in the courts, 157, 168; interdependence of the several parts of a, 165-66; the only absolute safeguards of a, 166-67; our system of, a model of the reign of law, 172; the vital stuff of a, 180; maintained on basis of intimate understanding between government and governed, 183; the understandings of, must be brought home to the people, 197; we must return to original conception of, 221-22
- Government, The Federal, and its powers, 41; organized in the face of local jealousies, 45; increase of its powers, 47; constructed on the Whig theory of checks and balances, 54, 86, 198-99; has had a vital and normal organic growth, 57; reaction of several parts of, upon one another, gives each its final form and character, 82; the active elements of, 99; leadership of each part of, 107; greatest power lies with part of, in closest touch with the nation, 109; that part is the President, 110; an individual can set up rights against, only in the courts, 143; restrained by the courts, 144; through the courts the final judge of its own powers, 157, 178; created by law, 161; relation of the States to, the cardinal question, 173-74; conceded the power to determine economic opportunities of the States, 175-76; spirit and action of, altered, 177; has no power not explicitly granted or reasonably inferred, 184; debatable powers of, 185; may not force wisdom upon the States, 187; normal and legitimate growth of powers of, 192; deliberate adding to, saps legal morality, 195; the executive in, a unit in itself, 205; three great functions of, subject to no common authority, 205; organization of branches of, emphasizes their separation, 206; disconnected parts of, to be brought into coöperation, 210; parts must act under direction of an outside master, 211
- Government of England governed by opinion of nation, not by the courts, 145, 161
- Governments are always governments of men, 17; affected by agitation, 37-38; are what politicians make them, 54
- Hamilton, Alexander, Theory of government, 199-200
- Hay, John, The frank professions of, received with doubt by foreign nations, 78
- Hayne-Webster debate, The, the central dramatic force of all our history, 48-49
- History, constitutional, The concern of, 9
- House of Commons, Demands of leaders of the, regarding laws submitted, 12; leaders of political party controlling the, are heads of the executive and guides in legislation, 40, 200; ministries selected by the majority in, approved by the king, 42; makes and unmakes Governments, 84, 99; not the Government, but its leaders are, 84;

- exhausts its originative capacity in producing a ministry, 99; in this more effective than House of Representatives, 100, 101
- House of Representatives, The, 82-111; two points of view of, 83; contrasted with House of Commons, 83-85; and Senate jealously guard their right to initiate legislation, 86; and Senate naturally unlike, 87; once debated, now does not, 88; organized into standing committees, charged with its business, 89; all bills referred to committees, and its business what committees choose to make it, 89-90; all committees appointed by the Speaker, 91-92; rules adopted by each new, 93-94; debates upon important bills, 95; controlled by party caucus of the majority, 95-96; talks in its committee rooms, 96; originative force of, exhausted in making a Speaker, 99; overburdened by its many committees, 100; its independence and isolation a weakness, 101; organization of, admired, 102; needed discussion and common counsel lacking in, 102-3; process of legislation too much hidden, and people criticize, 105-6; relations of, with the Senate, 106-7, 109-10; no common leadership, 107; under command of its Speaker, 107, 202; President may place, at a disadvantage, 108; has silenced itself by its policy of independence, 109; has forfeited the office of gathering counsel and being the voice of the nation, 110-11; an organic unit, 112; represents chiefly the East and North, 117; no restraint on members of, regarding publicity of business done, 123; salaries paid to members of, not sufficient, 129; looked upon by the Senate as ephemeral, 136; personnel of, changes rapidly, 136; represents localities with separate interests, 202; controlled by party, 202; effective organization of, 206
- Hungary, The Golden Bull exacted by the Magyar nobles of, 6
- Independence in an organization is isolation and weakness, 101
- Individual, Liberties of the, in their adjustment to the law, 3; adjustment between the government and the, 5; the first fact of liberty, 16, 17; exalted and honored by constitutional government, 18; stimulated, 19; protected, 24; rights of the, under our laws, 147-52; must take the initiative, 147; restrictions in favor of, 148-49; his own guardian, 150; in England as in America, 151; must be afforded the opportunity to protect himself, 154
- Individuality, More of, in South and West than in East and North, 118-19; represented in the Senate, 121-22
- Individuals, Congress acts upon, as directly as do state governments, 184
- Initiative and referendum vs. representative assemblies, 104, 188
- Institution, An, merely an established practice, 14
- Institutions the creatures of opinion, 22-23
- Institutions, Representative, see Assemblies
- Interests, The general, of the country, under regulation of the federal government, 173-74; many new, 180; wide scope and variety of, 192; changes in, 194-95
- Jackson, Andrew, The presidency under, 58; overstepped the bounds in disregarding the Supreme Court, 69, 159-60; never so sure he was right as when he was opposed, 175
- John, King, and the barons at Runnymede, 2-3, 53
- Judges belong to their own generation, 172, 193
- Judiciary, An independent and incorruptible, necessary, 17-18, 24; the balance-wheel of our entire system, 142-43

- Jurisdictions, Line between state and federal, 154-56, 171
- King, choice of ministry by English, now a mere form, 42; a reality when U. S. Constitution was framed, 43-44; restrained by a written compact, 161; a "constitutional" monarch, 201
- Labor, may Congress legislate on conditions of, 171
- Law, Constitutional government a government of, 17; stability and incorruptible efficacy of the, 24; the practical side of, its application, 85; is not automatic, 150
- Law, English and American, Theory of the, as to the individual, 18-19; as to the officer of government, 19-20
- Law, federal, United States courts the ultimate judges of, 156
- Law, state, Courts of the states the ultimate judges of, 156
- Law-making bodies of England, No restraint upon the, known to their courts, 145
- Law-making bodies of U. S., Powers of, definitely defined, 145-46
- Laws, Development of the right of representative assemblies to make, 12-13; abound in minute administrative details, 15; a government of, and not of men, never existed, 17; must be taken care of by the executive departments, 66; making of, exclusive sphere of Congress, 85; conflict of, our greatest political danger, 186
- Laws of England formulated by the ministers, 74
- Leader, The country craves a single, 68
- Leaders, Two forms of government under, 40
- Leadership, and control must be lodged somewhere, 54; of the government in the President, 66; belongs to its executive officers, 72; no common, between House and Senate, 107
- Legal practice, English, the same as American, 151
- Legislation, Some presidents have refrained from directing, 72, 74; need of a national spokesman in, 73; process of, too much hidden, 105, 106; haphazard method of compounding, 107; lines between state and federal, in danger of obliteration, 171; ill-considered, by the States, 186-87
- Legislatures as law-making assemblies, 10-11; Burke on, 13; enact impracticable laws, 39, 187-88; loss of confidence in, 188-89; must be made our real bodies politic, 221
- Liberty, The ideals of, cannot be fixed, 4; an unalterable principle of, 5; belongs to the individual or it does not exist, 16; not communal, 18; the object of constitutional government, 18
- Liberty, Political, defined, 3-4; and illustrated, 5
- Life, the last and most authoritative critic, 70
- Life-processes, The, of making a nation, 48
- Lincoln, Mr., and his unique task and achievement, 58; the nomination of, 62-63; on a nation half slave and half free, 176
- Local interest and preference, Conclusive argument against, 217-18
- Louis XIV master in the developed feudal nation, 28
- Machinery, Complex electoral, makes party machinery necessary, 209
- Magna Carta, exacted of John at Runnymede, a document of definition, 2; the immortal service of, 3; renewals of, 7; merely safeguards and regulates, 8; statement of individual right in, 22; may be ignored by Parliament, 144; defines rights against the crown not against Parliament, 145
- Magna Carta, The, of Hungary, 6
- Magyar nobles, The, of Hungary, exacted the Golden Bull, 6; con-

- tended for the privileges of a class, 6; provided no machinery for maintenance of the agreement, 6-7
- Maine, Sir Henry, on the men who colonized America, 52
- Manufacturers find it impossible to obey laws of all the States, 186
- Marshall, John, as lawyer and statesman, 158-59; his interpretations the products of insight, 159; decisions of, ignored by Andrew Jackson, 159-60; gave to our federal government its scope and power, 168
- Massachusetts Bill of Rights, 17
- Members of Congress, General interest in selection of, 190; opinion of whole country beats upon, 191
- Messages of presidents to Congress, 74
- Middle States constitute a single economic and political unit, 180-81
- Ministers, The, the Englishman calls "The Government," 83; are the Government, 84; executive authority vested in, 200-1; named by House of Commons, 201
- Ministries, Modern English, merely committees of the House of Commons, 13; selected by leader of majority in House of Commons, 42
- Minority, The, accorded representation on committees, 97; has its own party organization, 98
- Money in politics, Purchasing power of, 125
- Montesquieu on the Whig polity in England, 55-56; followed by the makers of the federal constitution, 56
- Moral and social questions not in the field of federal authority, 195
- Moralization is by life, not by statute, 197
- Nation, A, in its stage of social development, 28-30, 34; in its second stage of political development, 30, 34-37; in its third stage of agitation, 37-40; fourth stage of constitutional development, 40; life-processes of making a, to be seen, 48; called into being by Webster, 49; the nation and the President, 68; has risen to the first rank in power and resources, 78; regards the House as a piece of law-making machinery, not a deliberative assembly, 109
- Nationalizing process, Steady movement of the, 47-49; limitations of the, 49-50; contribution of parties to, 218-20
- New England States in most respects of a piece, 180
- Newspapers, Influence of, 102-3; reflect local not national conditions, 126
- Newton vs. Darwin in development of political theories, 55-56
- Newtonian theory of the universe applied by the English Whigs to politics, 54-56, 199; some presidents have held to the, 70
- Nominating conventions, How managed, 61-62; danger of the method, 63; party national committees control, 63-64; pick out party leader from body of the nation, 65; instinctive feeling in, upon occasion, 69
- Non-partisan local political action, Failure of, 208
- Nullification, Failure of, 175
- Officer of government, No peculiar dignity attaches to an, 19; has no authority outside the law, 20; cannot be a party to a suit, 148; ceases to be an officer when he oversteps his authority, 151; not so in other countries than England and America, 151-52
- Offices, Local, indispensable, as rewards for party fidelity, 209
- Officials, No constitutional machinery provided for choosing the thousands of, 210
- Opinion, Privilege of independent local, secured by the Constitution, 192
- Opinion, Public, the atmosphere of

- every government, 20; organized and unorganized, 21; institutions the creatures of, 22-23; action sobering to, 39; and party centred in a popular President, 69; the House not the organ of, 109; the law of the union of House and Senate, 110; the President nearest to, 110; homogeneity of, in the East and North, 118-19; variety of, represented in the Senate, 119; no national organ of, 126; relation of the courts to, 171-72
- Opinions, Two kinds of strong judicial, 194
- Parliament, The first, in England, 7; original purpose of, 10-11; relation of, to the government, 11-13; what the Whigs strove to make, 55; the grand assize, to criticize and control the Government, 84; has remained separate and waits for Government action, 87; can ignore Magna Carta and the Bill of Rights unchecked by the courts, 144; restrained only by public opinion, 161; separation of, from the crown, that of the real from the nominal executive, 201
- Parliamentary English form of government, 40
- Parties, Organization and operation of, in the United States, 198; control the personnel of all branches of the government, 205; give coherence to the action of political forces, 206; test their hold upon public opinion only by elections, 207; cannot form and reform for different purposes, 208; dispersion of offices and of functions and authorities have produced, 211; means of coöperation through, 211; at once necessary and disreputable, 214; nationalizing influence of great, 217-18; our real body politic, 218-20; reverence for, an obstacle to reform, 220-21; new uses for, 221; must be made instruments, 222
- Party, a distinct authority outside formal government only in United States, 211; in other governments, is indistinguishable, 212; control of, over government, uncertain, 216; must be made responsible, 220
- Party authority, Extraordinary development of, 206
- Party government, in the United States, 198-222; closely knit imperative discipline of, 205; requirements of party managers, 206-9; necessity for party machines, 209; local offices indispensable to party discipline, 209; to what peculiarities of, are due, 210, 213; necessary and beneficial, 210; machinery of, nominally representative, 216
- Party majorities in England are the government, 213
- Party managers, Irresponsible private, 210-11; difficult business of, 213-14
- Party national committees control nominating conventions, 63-64
- Party objects, The accomplishment of, the whole art of statesmanship, 54
- Party programs made up by conventions controlled by politicians, 213
- Passions, Great, in a whole population, find a great spokesman, 36
- Paternalism, 195
- People, A living, needs not a master but a leader, 34; no people can be given the self-control of maturity, 53; we are an industrial, and too "practical," 187; incapable of wielding power assigned them, 210; revolt of, against party bosses, 214
- Petition of Right, The, a part of the written constitution of England, 22
- Political liberty, see Liberty, Political.
- Politicians not clear theorists, 55; only limits likely to be observed by, 179; distinction between, and statesmen, 212
- Politicians, professional, Machinery of, cannot be supplanted, 214; disrepute of, unconstitutional, 214

- Politics, Purchasing power of money in, 125; provincialism, one of the serious difficulties of, 126; unity and coherence in our, 217
- Poor man, Interest of the, in country's prosperity, greater than that of the rich man, 115
- Power a positive not a negative thing, 106
- Powers, granted to and denied to Congress, 148-49; denied the states, 149; our constitutions apportion, 149; definition of, by makers of Constitution, 173; distribution of, among States, is the localization of constitutional understandings, 183
- Presidency, The, has varied with the man and the circumstances, 57-59, 69; from 1789 to 1825, 57; during Jackson's time, 58; from 1836 to 1861, 58; under Mr. Lincoln, 58; from 1865 to 1898, 58-59; since the war with Spain, 59; how nominations for the, are made, 61-62; cabinet officers in line of succession for, 64; what the President has sagacity and force to make it, 69; the cabinet an index of the theory of, 77; future development of, 80; succession to, 132
- President, The, of the United States, not expected to lead Congress, 40-41; conceived upon the model of the English king of the eighteenth century, 43-44; chapter on, 54-81; easier to write of, than the presidency, 54, 57; balanced off against Congress, 56; made only the legal executive by makers of the Constitution, 59, 79; has become leader of his party, and of the nation, 60, 79; rôle of party leader forced upon him, 60; choice of, by party conventions, 61-62; no training school for, 63-64; men best prepared to be, 64; kind of man selected for, 65-66; executive and political powers of, 66-67; leader of his party, 67, 107; political leader of the nation, 68; or both, 69; at liberty to be as big as he can be, 70; personal force of, perfectly constitutional, 71; his relations with Congress, 72-73, 201; veto power of, 73; has no access to floor of Congress, 73, 202; made by the power of veto more powerful than the king of England, 74; power behind messages of, 74; choice of cabinet by, 75; cannot be the actual executive, 76; may be like or more than his cabinet, 77; his control of the foreign relations of the nation, 77-78; only twice decisively influential, 78; summary of duties and influence of, 78-81; tax on, of appointments to office, 79; can secure his own relief, 80-81; should be less of an executive and more of a director, 81; intended to be a reformed and standardized king, 82; not leader of the Government as a whole, 107; the executive in the hands of, 107; difference between the Speaker and, 108; may appeal to the nation, 108; has most direct access to public opinion, 110; our one national figure, 127, 202; can form opinion by his own direct influence, 127; condescension of older senators towards, 130; an amateur to the professional senator, 130; relations of, with the Senate, 138-40; policy and duty of, to treat Senate as an executive council, 140; a controlling power in blending contending elements, 141; his isolation, his exaltation, 202; coöperatively bound to the houses by machinery of party, 203; controls personnel of the executive department, 205; consolidation of executive under, 206; power of, as a national boss, 215; restrained by his position, 215
- President pro tempore of the Senate, 131-33
- Privileges, The maintenance of, contended for, in Magna Carta and other constitutional documents, 7-9

- Protestant Reformation, The convictions of the, stirred all ranks of men, 36
- Provincialism in politics, 126; in the East, 127
- Prussia under Frederick the Great, 33-34; her dependent bureaucracy, 35, 36
- Public opinion, see Opinion, Public Purpose, A common, the result of common counsel, 30
- Recognition by the Speaker in House of Representatives, 92-93
- Reed, Thomas B., on the House of Representatives, 88
- Referendum, The, and the initiative vs. representative assemblies, 104
- Reform associations, 214
- Reforms, Easy to advocate, difficult to formulate, 39
- Regions as well as population must be represented, 116-18
- Representative assemblies, see Assemblies
- Representative principle, Abandonment of the, 188
- Republican party, Reverence for the, 221
- Revolution, see American Revolution
- Rights, Abstract, difficult of execution, 16; question of state and federal, involved in every great crisis, 174; in controversy over tariff legislation, 175; in the slavery question, 176; now upon us anew, 177-78
- Roosevelt, Theodore, Selection of cabinet by, 76
- Ruler, A great, makes great subjects, 32; what one may do by way of leadership, 33
- Rules, Committee on, Powers of the, 93-95
- Runnymede, The barons at, established constitutional government, 2-3; the understanding at, 20; process of, can be reversed, 53; repeated by Marshall and Jackson, 160-61
- Secretary of State, The, as candidate for the presidency, 64-65; the best statesmen needed to fill the office of, 78
- Sectional interests controlled by party discipline, 219-20
- Self-government, the consummate stage of constitutional development, 51; a form of character, 52; cannot be "given" to any people, 53; to be gained by a definite process, 53; test of the processes of, 188-90, 196
- Senate, The, Doubtless meant to be a part of the Government, 86; jealousy of rights in legislation, 86; naturally unlike the House, 87; represents the States as political units, 87; a place of free and prolonged debate, 88, 135; leaders of, must counsel with the Speaker, 98; a council, not an organization, 99, 106; relations between the House and, not cordial, 106, 109-10; guided by a small group of senators, 107; chapter on the, 112-41; difficult to form a just estimate of, 112; a body of individuals, 113; represents the country, not the people, 113-14, 116; mistaken criticism of, 114; represents the individual parts of the country, 117-18, 202; the population in its variety not its numbers, 119-20; has kept its original rules of debate and procedure, 121; methods of getting seats in, 123-25; influence in, dependent on experience, not money, 128; organization of, 130-35; the Vice President not a member of, 131; president pro tempore of, a vital political figure, 131-33; prepares its business through standing committees, 131, 133; leader of, the chairman of the majority caucus, 133; each party in, organized through its caucus, 133; not controlled by committees, 134; make-up of committees of, 136; discussions in, the only means of making public business known,

- 135; difficult of coördination with other organs of government, 135-36; looks upon the House as ephemeral, 136; personnel of, changes slowly, 136; party changes affect, but little, 137; leaders in, men proved by counsel, 137-38; relations of, with the President, 138-40; under outside party control, 203
- Senators, not mere legislators, but members of a great executive council, 122; reticence of, 123; majority of, obtain seats by legitimate methods, 127; the choice of the people, 128; salaries of, not large enough to command men of best abilities, 129; a body of representative American men, 129; condescension of older, towards the President, 130
- Seward and Lincoln, and the Chicago convention, 62
- Sheriff, Legal impertinence of a, to governor, 204
- Slavery question, The, 176; sprung out of the actual movement of affairs, 177; social contrasts created by, 218-19
- Social differences cut deeper than economic, 218-19; becoming less obvious, 220
- South and West, The, not yet centres of wealth or population, 117; more individuality in, 118; represent the older America, 118
- Southern States, Community of interest of the, 180
- Spain, The war with, made foreign questions leading ones, and the President leader, 59
- Speaker, The, almost autocratic master of the House, 91; undisputed party leader, 91; appoints all committees and controls their action, 91-92; controls debate, 92-93; may determine what the House shall hear, 93; controls Committee on Rules, 94-95; the instrument as well as leader of the majority, 95; consulted by committees, 97; next in influence to the President, 98; the impersonation of the House, 99; difficulty of, in appointing effective committees, 100; in command of the House, 107
- Speech not the only vent for opinion, 39
- Stagnation of peoples the rule, not the exception, 29
- State constitutions, Tests of, may be applied in the federal courts, 155-57
- State governments, Natural scope and limits of their powers, 49; development of United States would have been impossible without the, 50; the normal machinery of our legal adjustment, 51; no longer truly representative, 189-90; need reorganization along simpler lines, 191; reorganization of, 197; in their make-up Whig inventions, 198; structure of, 203; operation of, 204; complete dispersion of executive in, 205
- State legislatures, Speakers of, party leaders, 91; powers of, 175; confidence in, impaired, 188-90
- State officers and legislators appointed, not elected, 190
- State sovereignty, Old theory of, has lost its vitality, 178
- States, the, Dispersion of constitutional powers among, 41-42; could not be merged under one government, 44; not one community, 46; the constant making of, 48; essential, 49; our great contribution to constitutional development, 50; variety of social and economic conditions in, 115-17; mistakes in making new, 121; restrictions placed upon, by their constitutions, 149; greater part of legal regulation left to, 179; not mere units of local government, 180; earlier, formed upon geographical lines, 181; differences between groups of, must be recognized and provided for, 181-82; self-originated, self-sustaining, 182; possess the whole ordinary field of law, 183; are the

- ordinary governments of the country, 184; ill-considered legislation by, 186-87; must correct their own mistakes, 187; something wrong in their governments, 188
- States, The, and the federal government, 173-97; relation of, the cardinal question of our constitutional system, 173-74; principle of division of powers between, a simple one, 175; a question of vitality, 179; controversy springs out of actual movement of affairs, 177; a fundamental question of constitutional law now upon us, 178; division of powers between, at first normal and natural, 183; now at an unstable equilibrium, 191; modification and transfer of functions between, along lines of alterations of interest, 194
- Statesman and politician, Distinction between, 212-13
- Statesmanship, The whole art of, 54; new tasks set for, 178, 180
- Statesmanship of control, vested in our courts, 157; also that of adaptation, 168
- Steering committee of the House, 91; of the Senate majority caucus, 134
- Supreme Court, Reticence of members of the, 122-23; adaptation of the Constitution in the hands of the, 158; constitutional decisions of the, made with scrupulous care, 162; has read the power of Congress under the Constitution, 169-70
- Synthesis, not antagonism, the whole art of government, 106; a vital, lacking in our constitutional system, 109, 221
- Tariff legislation involved question of state and federal rights, 174-75
- Understanding, A definite, between governors and governed, 3, 7, 12, 18, 20-22, 25, 37, 183, 222; not secured in Hungary, 6; in the United States, 9-10, 13, 14; of constitutional government, 50-52; acts destructive of, 71; discussion of public business necessary under, 102; the individual has appeal to, in the courts, 143; in Magna Carta and the Bill of Rights, not defended by English courts, 144; our detailed and definite, 161-62
- Understandings, Vital constitutional, 183; our "practical" demands not favorable to, 187
- United States, Place of the, in constitutional development, 25-53; can the, be regarded as a community? 26, 51; radical changes operating for unity in the, 46-48; have had no frontier since 1890, 48; impossible to generalize about the, 51; not a homogeneous community, 180; divided socially and economically into regions rather than States, 180-81
- Veto power, of the President, 59-60, 73; in England, 73-74
- Vice President, The, and his relations to the Senate, 130-31
- Voters, Impossible task imposed on, 189-90, 216; united by parties upon national questions, 217; must have fewer things to act upon, 221-22
- Washington selected cabinet from both parties, 75; made constant use of his colleagues, 80
- Webster, Daniel, called the nation into full consciousness, 49
- Webster-Hayne debate, The, the central dramatic force of all our history, 48-49
- Westward expansion the chief factor of national feeling, 48
- Whig contest with the crown, 198-99
- Whig theory of political dynamics, The, 54; like the Newtonian theory of the universe, 54-55; a system of checks and balances, 55-56; some presidents have held to, 70; extraordinary influence of, in American politics, 203; reductio ad particulam, 204; enacted into law, 205; have we had enough of? 222

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Columbia University in the City of New York

The Press was incorporated June 8, 1893, to promote the publication of the results of original research. It is a private corporation, related directly to Columbia University by the provisions that its Trustees shall be officers of the University and that the President of Columbia University shall be President of the Press.

The publications of the Columbia University Press include works on Biography, History, Economics, Education, Philosophy, Linguistics, and Literature, and the following series:

- Columbia University Contributions to Anthropology.
- Columbia University Biological Series.
- Columbia University Studies in Cancer and Allied Subjects.
- Columbia University Studies in Classical Philology.
- Columbia University Studies in Comparative Literature.
- Columbia University Studies in English.
- Columbia University Geological Series.
- Columbia University Germanic Studies.
- Columbia University Indo-Iranian Series.
- Columbia University Contributions to Oriental History and Philology.
- Columbia University Oriental Studies.
- Columbia University Studies in Romance Philology and Literature.
- Records of Civilization: Sources and Studies.
- Adams Lectures.
- Julius Beer Lectures.
- Blumenthal Lectures.
- Carpentier Lectures.
- Hewitt Lectures.
- Jesup Lectures.

Catalogues will be sent free on application.

LEMCKE & BUECHNER, AGENTS

30-32 WEST 27TH ST., NEW YORK

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Columbia University in the City of New York

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY LECTURES

ADAMS LECTURES

GRAPHICAL METHODS. By CARL RUNGE, Ph.D., Professor of Applied Mathematics in the University of Göttingen. 8vo, cloth, pp. ix + 148. Price, $1.50 net.

JULIUS BEER LECTURES

SOCIAL EVOLUTION AND POLITICAL THEORY. By LEONARD T. HOBBHOUSE, Professor of Sociology in the University of London. 12mo, cloth, pp. ix + 218. Price, $1.50 net.

BLUMENTHAL LECTURES

POLITICAL PROBLEMS OF AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT. By ALBERT SHAW, LL.D., Editor of the Review of Reviews. 12mo, cloth, pp. vii + 268. Price, $1.50 net.

CONSTITUTIONAL GOVERNMENT IN THE UNITED STATES. By WOODROW WILSON, LL.D., President of the United States. 12mo, cloth, pp. vii + 236. Price, $1.50 net.

THE PRINCIPLES OF POLITICS FROM THE VIEWPOINT OF THE AMERICAN CITIZEN. By JEREMIAH W. JENKS, LL.D., Professor of Government and Public Administration in New York University. 12mo, cloth, pp. xviii + 187. Price, $1.50 net.

THE COST OF OUR NATIONAL GOVERNMENT. By HENRY JONES FORD, Professor of Politics in Princeton University. 12mo, cloth, pp. xv + 147. Price, $1.50 net.

THE BUSINESS OF CONGRESS. By HON. SAMUEL W. McCALL, Member of Congress for Massachusetts. 12mo, cloth, pp. vii + 215. Price, $1.50 net.

THOMAS JEFFERSON: HIS PERMANENT INFLUENCE ON AMERICAN INSTITUTIONS. By HON. JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS, United States Senator from Mississippi. 12mo, cloth, pp. ix + 330. Price, $1.50 net.

OUR CHIEF MAGISTRATE AND HIS POWERS. By WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT, Twenty-seventh President of the United States. 12mo, cloth, pp. vii + 165. Price, $1.50 net.

LEMCKE & BUECHNER, AGENTS

30-32 WEST 27th ST., NEW YORK

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Columbia University in the City of New York

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY LECTURES

FOUR STAGES OF GREEK RELIGION. By GILBERT MURRAY, Regius Professor of Greek, in the University of Oxford. 8vo, cloth, pp. 228. Price, $1.50 net.

LECTURES ON SCIENCE, PHILOSOPHY AND ART. A series of twenty-one lectures descriptive in non-technical language of the achievements in Science, Philosophy and Art. 8vo, cloth. Price, $5.00 net.

LECTURES ON LITERATURE. A series of eighteen lectures by instructors of the University on literary art and on the great literatures of the world, ancient and modern. 8vo, cloth, pp. viii + 404. Price, $2.00 net.

GREEK LITERATURE. A series of ten lectures delivered at Columbia University by scholars from various universities. 8vo, cloth, pp. vii + 306. Price, $2.00 net. The lectures are:

THE STUDY OF GREEK LITERATURE. By PAUL SHOREY, Ph.D., Professor of Greek, University of Chicago.

EPIC POETRY. By HERBERT WEIR SMYTH, Ph.D., Eliot Professor of Greek Literature, Harvard University.

LYRIC POETRY. By EDWARD DELAVAN PERRY, Ph.D., Jay Professor of Greek, Columbia University.

TRAGEDY. By JAMES RIGNALL WHEELER, Ph.D., Professor of Greek Archæology and Art, Columbia University.

COMEDY. By EDWARD CAPPS, Ph.D., Professor of Classics, Princeton University.

HISTORY. By BERNADOTTE FERRIN, Ph.D., Lampson Professor of Greek Literature and History, Yale University.

ORATORY. By CHARLES FORSTER SMITH, Ph.D., Professor of Greek and Classical Philology, University of Wisconsin.

PHILOSOPHY. By FREDERICK J. E. WOODBRIDGE, Ph.D., Johnsonian Professor of Philosophy, Columbia University.

HELLENISTIC LITERATURE. By HENRY W. PRESCOTT, Ph.D., Professor of Classical Philology, University of Chicago.

GREEK INFLUENCE ON ROMAN LITERATURE. By GONZALEZ LODGE, Ph.D., Professor of Latin and Greek, Columbia University.

LEMCKE & BUECHNER, AGENTS

30-32 WEST 27th ST., NEW YORK

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS

Columbia University in the City of New York

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY LECTURES

CARPENTIER LECTURES

- THE NATURE AND SOURCES OF THE LAW. By JOHN CHIPMAN GRAY, LL.D., Royall Professor of Law in Harvard University. 12mo, cloth, pp. xii + 332. Price, $1.50 net.
- WORLD ORGANIZATION AS AFFECTED BY THE NATURE OF THE MODERN STATE. By HON. DAVID JAYNE HILL, sometime American Ambassador to Germany. 12mo, cloth, pp. ix + 214. Price, $1.50 net.
- THE GENIUS OF THE COMMON LAW. By the Rt. Hon. SIR FREDERICK POLLOCK, Bart., D.C.L., LL.D., Bencher of Lincoln's Inn, Barrister-at-Law. 12mo, cloth, pp. vii + 141. Price, $1.50 net.
- THE MECHANICS OF LAW MAKING. By COURTENAY ILBERT, G.C.B., Clerk of the House of Commons. 12mo, cloth, pp. viii + 209. Price, $1.50 net.

HEWITT LECTURES

- THE PROBLEM OF MONOPOLY. By JOHN BATES CLARK, LL.D., Professor of Political Economy, Columbia University. 12mo, cloth, pp. vi + 128. Price, $1.25 net.
- POWER. By CHARLES EDWARD LUCKE, Ph.D., Professor of Mechanical Engineering, Columbia University. 12mo, cloth, pp. vii + 316. Illustrated. Price, $2.00 net.
- THE DOCTRINE OF EVOLUTION. Its Basis and its Scope. By HENRY EDWARD CRAMPTON, Ph.D., Professor of Zoölogy, Columbia University. 12mo, cloth, pp. ix + 311. Price, $1.50 net.
- MEDIAEVAL STORY AND THE BEGINNINGS OF THE SOCIAL IDEALS OF ENGLISH-SPEAKING PEOPLE. By WILLIAM WITHERLE LAWRENCE, Ph.D., Associate Professor of English, Columbia University. 12mo, cloth, pp. xiv + 236. Price, $1.50 net.
- LAW AND ITS ADMINISTRATION. By HARLAN F. STONE, LL.D., Dean of the School of Law, Columbia University. 12mo, cloth, pp. vii + 232. Price, $1.50 net.

JESUP LECTURES

- LIGHT. By RICHARD C. MACLAURIN, LL.D., Sc.D., President of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. 12mo, cloth, pp. ix + 251. Portrait and figures. Price, $1.50 net.
- SCIENTIFIC FEATURES OF MODERN MEDICINE. By FREDERIC S. LEE, Ph.D., Dalton Professor of Physiology, Columbia University. 12mo, cloth, pp. vii + 183. Price, $1.50 net.
- HEREDITY AND SEX. By THOMAS HUNT MORGAN, Ph.D., Professor of Experimental Zoölogy in Columbia University. Second edition, 12mo, cloth, pp. ix + 284. Illustrated. Price, $1.75 net.

LEMCKE & BUECHNER, AGENTS

30-32 WEST 27th ST., NEW YORK

This book is a preservation photocopy.
It was produced on Hammermill Laser Print natural white,
a 60 # book weight acid-free archival paper which meets the requirements of
ANSI/NISO Z39.48-1992 (permanence of paper)

Preservation photocopying and binding by
Acme Bookbinding
Charlestown, Massachusetts
☐
1995

The borrower must return this item on or before the last date stamped below. If another user places a recall for this item, the borrower will be notified of the need for an earlier return.

Non-receipt of overdue notices does not exempt the borrower from overdue fines.

Harvard College Widener Library
Cambridge, MA 02138 617-495-2413

WIDENER
WIDENER
NOV 05 2002
OCT 27 2002
CANCELLED
BOOK DUE

WIDENER
WIDENER
FEB 10 2005
NOV 23 2004
BOOK DUE
CANCELLED

Please handle with care.
Thank you for helping to preserve
library collections at Harvard.

BOOK DUE
BOOK DUE

